Join the Friends of Churston Library for a great day out to Wells and Glastonbury on Saturday 9th March 2024

Our first visit of the day is to Wells, famous of course, for its beautiful and majestic cathedral. Although not a large city, Wells still has lots to offer. Attractions apart from the cathedral are the Bishops Palace and Vicars Close. There is also an abundance of good shops and restaurants. Following on from Wells we then pay a visit to Glastonbury. Steeped in Celtic Mythology and famous for its association with Arthur and Guinevere, Glastonbury Tor is known as the Isle of Avalon. For the more down to earth there are shops and cafes, but beware, it could put a spell on you!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
