-Mr. Stieben presented, there were no questions or changes

New Business

Review of Superintendent Applications
-MASB consultant Rod Green led the Board of Education through the review of 16 applications for the position of Superintendent. Because of an expectation of privacy for each applicant Board members referred to each candidate by number. During the meeting each Board member stated who, based on number they wanted to interview. Through this process five applicants were selected to be interviewed. Interviews were set for Saturday, June 13, 2020 beginning at 9:00. After the first three candidates are interviewed there will be a thirty-minute break for lunch and the last two interviews will begin at 12:30.

Public Comment

-No Public Comment
