Virtual
Mason High School IVN Room

Executive Order No. 2020-110 prohibits all indoor public gatherings of more than 10 people. Executive Order No. 2020-129 allows for public bodies to meet virtually due to COVID-19. For these reasons, the Mason Consolidated Schools Board will meet electronically via the web-based application, MS Teams Live Stream. The public may attend and participate in the Mason Consolidated Schools Board of Education meeting virtually using the following MS Teams Live Stream location.

The Board of Education encourages comments from the public. Members of the community are invited and encouraged to address the Board of Education during the public comment portion of the agenda. In order to participate during the public portion, the individual must register by making a request five minutes prior to the Board of Education meeting on: Google Form. Five minutes prior to public comment registered members will receive an email with a phone number and meeting code to call.

When the Board of Education Presidents announces the public comment period, the registered community members will be given the opportunity to address the board. If you have any issues trying to make contact using the phone number and meeting code please email ktuller@eriemason.k12.mi.us.

The public may attend and participate in the Mason Consolidated Schools Board of Education meeting virtually using the following MS Teams Live Stream location.
