DESCRIPTION:

October 23: Positive Discipline

Knowing about child development gives caregivers the skills to best nurture children and identify potential developmental delays. In this workshop, participants will explore active learning, child developmental domains, characteristics of typical development, and resources to support developmental delays. This workshop will also explore techniques for observing children and the unique characteristics of multi-age care settings.

Extension Extras for Professionals is a collection of free online series of childcare workshops that provides guidance for early childhood professionals and caregivers of young children. Trainings are eligible for MIRegistry hours.
