News from the TNG Purchasing Team

- “ Product availability and pricing, primarily of steel and tin cans, plastic, paper products, wheat, chicken, beef, sugar and corn continue to be the purchasing team’s focus.
- “ While we are seeing signs of recovery in some areas, we continue to adjust as needed to ensure a balance of quality, nutrition and cost effectiveness.
- “ We’ve recently launched a weekly internal publication featuring guidance that provides tips for your Director of Food and Nutrition to streamline kitchen processes, ultimately promoting time and cost savings.
- “ The purchasing team is currently planning broker showcases, where our vendors introduce new food products. From there, we choose designated locations for students to taste test, which helps our chefs determine future menu items.
