

Brandon Bates Administrative Report

Date: 1/14/20

- The end of the first semester is January 17^h. Exams will be on January 16th and 17th. Wish our students luck as they strive to finish up this first semester on a strong note.
- The PSAT results arrived right after Christmas Break. The teachers and I will be using this data to help plan instruction for the next three months leading up to the S.A.T. test date. This data will also allow for more individualized interventions through our lab classes and potentially MAVA.
- Dollars for Scholars have been continuing their fundraising through their "half-court shot for a pop" promotion. Try your luck at the next basketball game to see if you can sink a half court shot!
- The Winterfest dance will be held January 25th. The Winterfest game will be Friday, January 24th.
- Jessica Hopper was chosen as the Golden Apple Award Winner for the month. She has done an amazing job revamping the library and has been awesome keeping our Social Media up to date with the latest happenings here at school.
- Don Traviss will be starting with us full time on January 21st. He came in last Friday to get acclimated and start meeting the staff and students.
- As part of our MTSS process, the High School teachers will be conducting exam study sessions at various dates and times before and after school. Your student's teachers will be posting in their classroom when they will be offering the sessions.
