DESCRIPTION:

September 16 Talking With Kids About Differences

This workshop takes a broad view of talking with kids about differences between people. These conversations acknowledge the differences that are around us and form the foundation for open and honest communication between adults and children.

This session for parents and caregivers will address the following topics:

What are social identities?

What are isms?

What are stereotypes and how do they create bias?

Why should I talk about differences?

How should I talk about differences?

Extension Extras Parenting Hour is a free online series of parenting workshops that provides guidance for parents of young children as they navigate the joys, challenges and concerns of parenting.
