

2026 Montana Convention: Friday, April 17

Keynote Speakers

- Heidi St. John, “Arrows in the Hands of a Warrior”
- Chuck Black, “Spiritual Warfare: Fighting for your Family”

Workshops

- Dana Wilson
 - “Disabilities, Giftedness, and Typical Learners Under the Same Roof”
 - “Finding Your Fit: Exploring Philosophies and Styles”
- Aby Rinella
 - “Finding Our Why”
 - “Called for Such a Time as This”
- Mike Farris
 - “Civics and How to Teach it to Your Kids”
- Zan Tyler
 - “Overcoming Homeschool Burnout”
- THE CIA GUY
 - “Digital Privacy”
- Chuck Black
 - “Dealing with Doubt: Strengthening your Children’s Faith”
- Veteran Mom Panel: Transcripts, College Credits, HiSet/GED for High School and Beyond
- Steve White and Rachel Dombach: Montana Homeschool Laws

Freedom Panel

Join Heidi St. John, Steve White, Michael Farris, and Zan Tyler for a powerful conversation on the freedoms we enjoy as homeschoolers. Together, we will celebrate those who have paved the way and gain insight into how we can remain vigilant in protecting our God-given right to educate our children at home.

Mom’s Night Out with Heidi St. John

Don't miss this evening of encouragement just for moms with veteran homeschooling mama of 7, Heidi St. John!

Vendor Hall

The Vendor Hall is the heart of our convention—a vibrant space where ideas come to life and connections are made. Here you’ll find curriculum providers, educational tools, books, technology, and resources designed to support and enrich your homeschooling journey.

Teen Program (Ages 13+)

Practical Apologetics with Chuck Black, Constitutional Basics with Michael Farris, The Digital World with The CIA GUY...and more!

Kids Program (Ages 4-12)

We have lots of great kid’s programs in the works! Check back for more details.

2026 Montana Convention: Saturday, April 18

Keynote Speakers

- Mike Farris, “The Coming Battle for Homeschool Freedom”
- Zan Tyler, “Raising Children with a Biblical Worldview in a Hostile World”

Workshops

- Dana Wilson
 - “Planning for Life after High School for the Student with Disabilities”
- Aby Rinella
 - “Affordable Homeschooling?”
- Mike Farris
 - “The Spiritual Power of a Mother”
- Zan Tyler
 - “Help! I’m Homeschooling an Unmotivated Child”
- THE CIA GUY
 - “Digital Tracking, Awareness”
- Chuck Black
 - “Escapism: Avoiding the Snares of Media”
 - “Defining Moments That Change Your Future”
- Steve White
 - “Montana’s Homeschool History”
- Special Needs Panel: Parents of Kids with Special Needs Q&A
- Gap Year Options

Saturday Morning Brews and Bros

Men's Breakfast with Chuck Black: Call to Arms: The Guts & Glory of Courageous Fatherhood. Breakfast Included.

Vendor Hall

The Vendor Hall is the heart of our convention—a vibrant space where ideas come to life and connections are made. Here you’ll find curriculum providers, educational tools, books, technology, and resources designed to support and enrich your homeschooling journey.

Teen Program (Ages 13+)

Practical Apologetics with Chuck Black, Constitutional Basics with Michael Farris, The Digital World with The CIA GUY...and more!

Kids Program (Ages 4-12)

We have lots of great kid’s programs in the works! Check back for more details.

Kids Track and Field Day

Our local homeschool PE Coach, Seth Rutt, is planning an outdoor track & field day for FREE! This fun and casual event will take place at Smith School-next door to the convention hotel. All children ages 5-12 are invited to attend. Please let us know if you’re interested and Mr. Rutt will be in touch with details as we get closer to the event.