Penn Sports Radio announces partnership with Moravian Academy Athletics

02/10/20

[Emmaus] - Penn Sports Radio, the leader in the Lehigh Valley for Live high school sports, is proud to announce an exciting new partnership with Moravian Academy in Bethlehem. Based in Emmaus, Penn Sports Radio will bring several Moravian Academy sporting events, including girls and boys basketball post-season games along with baseball in the spring.

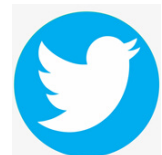

"We are excited and thrilled to partner with Moravian Academy on this new venture," said Scott Johnston, partner with Penn Sports Radio. "With the backing and the support of athletic director Manny Oudin, Penn Sports Radio is committed to provide professional quality live broadcasts for the student-athletes at the school and to all who those who follow the teams."

Penn Sports Radio was established in 2018 by owner/operator Ray Canevari and the company currently has partnerships with Emmaus and Allentown Central Catholic of the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference, along with Northwestern Lehigh, Saucon Valley and Notre Dame Green Pond of the Colonial League.
