

2018 Year End Award Sponsorships

Dear RIAHA Members and Friends,

It's hard to believe that we are quickly approaching the end of another fantastic year. 2018 has been a year of growth, change and evolution for our small organization of members dedicated to the Arabian horse.

We received valuable feedback early in the year from both members and non-members through our online survey. We listened to what you said and used that information to guide our planning for the year.

Together, we have accomplished the following in 2018:

- Hosted our first Summer Fun Show and ice cream social in July with strong attendance and healthy profit for the club
- Organized our fifth annual sold out dressage clinic with Renee Surprenant in August
- Increased participation in the year-end awards program by 80%
- Established the Frequent Rider Program to reward time spent in the saddle outside of competition with more than 225 hours logged
- Published a monthly newsletter updating members and friends of events, programs, and member news
- Shared more than 50 "Member Moment" photographs in the monthly newsletter
- Redesigned and regularly updated our website with more than 9,000 visitors
- Created online registration forms and payments making event attendance easier than ever
- Held a Potluck quarterly meeting with the option for members to bring their own horse to ride

And, we aren't done yet! Due to the enthusiasm for the Summer Fun Show we arranged to host a second fun show, the Fall Spooktacular on November 4, complete with chili and soup for all exhibitors and guests. We also submitted our first ever entry for the Arabian Horse Association's Club Excellence awards in the Club Project category and were named a semi-finalist! The winner receives a $500 award and will be announced at the annual convention being held November 14-17. Keep your fingers crossed!

Together, we have built great momentum for our organization. Help us keep it going as we celebrate the achievements of our members at the year end awards banquet and move into a new year. Your continued support is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

RIAHA Officers and Board of Directors
