What:

Paws On The Patio is a monthly event that takes place at select local restaurants where owners and pets can enjoy an evening of fun, food, beverage and furry friendly local vendors.

On Saturday, April 28, 2018 Paws On The Patio along with the weekly Tivoli Farmers Market will offer the following activities from 9:00am-3:00pm:

- Dine with your pets on the patio of participating restaurants located around Tivoli Village in support of local animal rescues.
- Farmers Market filled with vendors and artists offering unique one of a kind art, crafts, jewelry and gifts you cannot find in any store. There will be music, food trucks and pet bakeries serving up delicious animal and human food all day.
- Dog Agility Course in the park at Tivoli Village where we will have an agility course and obedience training. You may join in or simply watch other dogs compete with their human. Training is open to dogs of all ages, sizes and breeds, and set to teach dogs how to run through chutes and tunnels, complete jumps and weave through poles.
- “Paws On The Runway” from 12:30pm -1:30pm on the Gazebo stage in front of Look Society and Casa Cigars. You do not want to miss this! It features loveable furry friends available for adoption!!
- Kid Zone activities will be held in the piazza and will include face painting, bounce houses, entertainers and balloons in the most beautiful setting in Las Vegas.
