Speed Deamons

Plainsmen have stolen 104 bags this season out of 121 attempts (86%)

- Cade Owens 20-21, led the team
- Kyle McConachie and Zach Knowlton both had 14 stolen bags
- Mitsuki Kohno had 13 along with being the catalyst for 3 of 4 Plainsmen walk-offs

New Kid in School

Multiple Plainsmen have transfered colleges this season.

- Nick Hockemeyer is moving from Ivy Tech, which shut down it's baseball program for Dallas College Richland
- Justin Santos to UT-Dallas from OPSU
- Kenneth Sugi transfered from Kaskaskia to Missouri S&T

Bryce Back Home

For the second season in a row, Bryce Butterfield is playing for his home-town colligate team the Plainsmen

- Last year, was both a starting pitcher and batter for Platte
- This season he has just been an arm
- Starting a life in Platte, had his daughter, Harper-Lilly, on July 3rd
- Butterfield family is known around time. Dad is big with the Legion team

NebraskaLand Days

From June 14th through the end of the month, North Platte celebrated NebraskaLand Days, the largest festival in town.

- Players & Interns celebrated by going to the June 15th Buffalo Bill Rodeo
- Levi, Faith, Liz, Nicolle, Olivia, Dan, Corey, and myself were the Interns who went (Sage and Frankie out of town)
- Players incuded Santos, Ramsey, Graw, Maydon, Kelly, Soper, Ortiz, Yoshi, Rui, and others

International Love

6 Plainsmen are not from the United States

- Four are from Japan
- Mitsuki Kohno (IF), Rui Yoshida (IF), Hideyoshi Kawahara (RHP), Sota Inden (RHP)
- Two from Canada
- Dylan Graw (RHP), Kenneth Sugi (OF)

On Theme

Multiple theme nights in North Platte, both recurring ones and one-time

- Tropical Tuesdays and Western Wednesdays
- Bark in the Park (6/11)
- Buisnessman Special (6/26)
- Taylor Swift Day (6/29)
- Relay for Life (7/22-23)
- Intern Day (7/25)
- Success: Plainsmen 6-5 on Theme days

Historic Bill Wood Field

Bill Wood Field was built in 1955 as after Union Pacific Park burned down

- Old park was home to the North Platte Buffaloes, who played from 1928-1932 in D Ball and were manged by Spud Ownes
- Has been the home to multiple minor league and unaffiliated teams
- North Platte Indians played at Bill Wood from 1956-1959, Short-Season D Ball
- Saw renovations in the 1980s and in 2021 to get it ready for the Plainsmen, including improved dugouts and new signs in the outfield

The Bond Boys

Sam and Tucker Bond play together, and have done so since they have been kinds

- Both play at Oklahoma Panhandle State University
- From Georgetown, Texas. The same hometown as Nolan Ryan
- Have a third twin brother, less athletics and has more of a surfer bro type energy

It's about how you finish

Despite starting 0-10, Plainsmen rebounded since

- 17-22 since the start
- 16-17 since after June 19th with 5 losses being 1-run games
- Run differential over that period of 172-215, much closer than the first 10
- Outperformed pythagorean win theorem (40%)
- Finished with total PyW% of 35%, as opposed to 34 actual

Nebraska Weather

9 games this season have either been rained out or started and then canceled in the game due to rain

- Additionally, 6 games have been stopped mid-game or halted due to weather
- Game on the 10th of July was interrupted by a tornado siren, the only time that happened in the season

Whats in a Name

Plainsmen name stretches back decades, first being used in the 1960s by a Legion Team

- That team played in the Basin League, played in a championship game
- Modern name remained dormant until 2022 when it was given to the new colligate team

Home For The Holidays

Plainsmen get to be in North Platte for multiple holidays

- Memorial day (5/29) vs Western Nebraska Pioneers (R/O)
- NebraskaLand Days (Mid June)
- Fourth of July vs US Military War Dogs

Cultural Shift

The Japanese players have been bringing their culture and baseball traditions to the states

- Other players on the team including McConachie and Santos describe the attitude that they bring as strong and committed

HEAD COACH JARED JONES

Jared Jones is entering his first season as the Head Coach of the North Platte Plainsmen. Jones is a graduate of Central Christian College, where he played baseball and earned a Bachelors in Physical Education. At Central Christian, Jones hit .271 with 1 Home Run and 17 RBI over three seasons.

Jones grad transfered to Dakota Wesleyan University where he played baseball at the NAIA level and earned his Master is Educational Policy while hitting .191/.250/.397 with 3 Home Runs and 15 RBI.

After finishing his playing career, Jones joined the staff at Highland Community College in Highland, Kansas as player development coordinator.

In July of 2022, Jones was promoted to the title of Hitting Coach and Director of Player Development. On game days, Jones is the first base coach for the Scotties along with coaching the hitters and outfielders and overseeing the strength and conditioning program.

Jones will be entering his third season of coaching Collegiate summer baseball. Jones spent 2021 and 2022 coaching in the Cornbelt Summer Collegiate League, serving as the head coach for the Omaha Cropdusters. The league itself was based in Omaha, Nebraska with all teams competing in the city.

Jones is from Edmond, Oklahoma, and currently lives in Highland, Kansas.

ASSISTANT COACH DAVIN CONWAY

Davin Conway joins the Plainsmen after graduating from Knox College with a degree in Political Science. Conway then grad transfered to Cabrini where he earned a masters Political Science with a focus in Educational Policy.

Over 28 innings at Knox, Conway finished with a 8.58 ERA and 25 strikeouts along with an ERA of 11.37 in 2 years and 6 innings at Cabrini.

Conway is from Sarcoxie, Missouri and is entering his first coaching job at the college level.
