Biblical Expectations for Mentors

What We're Looking for in a Mentor (Biblical Principles):

As a mentor in the Daughter of God Discipleship program, you are called to reflect the heart of Jesus. Scripture says, "Go and make disciples of all nations..." (Matthew 28:19-20). This is more than teaching; it's about walking alongside others in love, truth, and humility.

Biblical Qualities of a Godly Mentor:

- Spirit-led: You are led by the Holy Spirit in wisdom and discernment (Galatians 5:22-25).
- Mature in Faith: You consistently study God's Word and are rooted in Christ (Colossians 2:6-7).
- Servant-hearted: You are willing to serve and not lord over others (Mark 10:45).
- Encouraging: You build others up with grace and truth (1 Thessalonians 5:11).
- Accountable: You live a life of integrity and transparency (James 5:16).

As a mentor, your role is to pray with and for your mentee, walk with them through Scripture, support them in life challenges, and help them grow into strong disciples of Jesus Christ.

This is a sacred calling. Please be prayerful about your commitment.
