1:24pm - Google Nest camera at back door came back online. Ring Doorbell camera at front door came back online with blue tape over the lens. Side yard camera stayed offline.

4:26pm - Dan was interviewed at the Broomfield Police Department by Detective Martinez and Detective King-Sullivan. He signed a Miranda waiver. He denied having any altercations with Kristil. He denied having any involvement in her murder. He eventually told detectives that if the police were not going to arrest him, he wanted to leave. Dan was allowed to leave and he was provided transportation.

The Krug children spent the night with maternal family members.

More than 42 homes in the direct vicinity of the Krug home were canvassed by law enforcement. All known camera footage was either collected or requested. There was no unknown person witnessed on the property of 3132 Promontory Loop on December 14th.

Date Unknown - Sergeant Ormond of the Utah County Sheriff's Eagle Mountain Division contacted Anthony and confirmed his alibi. Anthony was cooperative. His alibi was solid.

December 15, 2023 - An autopsy was performed on Kristil that reported two or more blunt force injury wounds on the back of her head and one stab wound on the left side of her chest. It is unclear if the sharp force weapon was located by law enforcement.

December 15, 2023 - Detective Pihlak obtained a search warrant for Dan's office at work. Detectives Martinez and Ramzauskas performed the search. Nothing of evidentiary value was located during the search. Detective Pihlak also updated search warrants for Dan's cell phones, and Detective Waight took all three phones (Dan's work phone, Dan's personal phone, Kristil's phone) to the United States Secret Service location to access advanced forensic software. Detective King-Sullivan obtained a search warrant for Dan's vehicle. Detectives King-Sullivan and Trujillo searched the vehicle. They found a bag that contained Dan's expired passport and a homeowners insurance policy for Dan's second home on Davis Street in Broomfield. Additionally, they noted that Dan's dashcam was unplugged.

December 16, 2023 - Detective Martinez spoke with Anthony by phone. Detective Martinez was able to extract and record additional details about Anthony's alibi, further solidifying the fact that Anthony was absolutely not involved in Kristil's murder.

December 16, 2023 - Detective Ramazauskas received a phone call from Kristil's mother, Linda Grimsrud. Linda said that she was fuzzy on her original statement due to everything that was happening, but she wanted to make sure that she had properly expressed the fact that Dan and Kristil were planning to get a divorce. She said that Kristil wanted full custody of the children. She said that Kristil was going to wait until the kids were out of school, but that Kristil was no longer willing to wait. She said they were separating finances. She said they didn't sleep in the same bedroom. She said that Dan wanted to take one of their children's educational funds. She said that Dan had a motive to murder her daughter. She didn't understand why he had called her on the day of her daughter's death, because he would typically call Kristil's brother Lars or his wife Kate. Linda also said that Kristil had the security cameras installed in October. According to Linda, Dan had spoken about selling the house and throwing away Kristil's clothing in the two days after her murder. He didn't want to go back to the house, and he didn't want the kids going back to the house. And finally, Linda stated that Dan said he felt like he was being framed for Kristil's murder.

December 16, 2023 - Dan was arrested at the King Soopers grocery store on 136th Avenue in Broomfield by Detective Andrew Martinez and sent to the Broomfield Detention Center, where he remains, under a $5m cash only bond. He invoked his right to an attorney right away.

Date Unknown - Judge Priscilla Loew granted an order of protection for the Krug children after Dan has inappropriate conversations on recorded phone calls from the jail.

October 14, 2024 - Jury Trial begins in Broomfield, Colorado.
