

Study

How much? How often?

2 sessions per day Maximum.

Session 1 (20 - 30 mins) - Input + structure

- Review 1 unit
- Read text
- Check vocab
- Plan answers

Session 2 (20 - 30 mins) - Speaking only

- Answer 2–3 monologue questions aloud

FACTS

- “You improve by speaking, not reading.”
- “Short practice every day is better than long sessions.”
- “You don’t need perfect English - you need continuous English.”

30 min BEFORE the exam

Exam Survival Tips

How to Prepare (30 minutes)

- 5 min → review vocabulary
- 10 min → read text + underline key ideas
- 10 min → speak answers aloud
- 5 min → correct mistakes

- Speak continuously (do not stop)
- Stay calm & structured
- If you don’t know a word → explain it
- Use examples to gain time

Exam

Monologue (7 minutes)

Introduction:

“Good morning/afternoon”
 “My name is

“Today I am going to talk about about the topic of:.....”
 “Today I would like to talk about the topic of:.....”
 “Today I am going to present the topic of:.....”

Dialogue Strategy (8 minutes)

Always:

1. Answer the question
2. Add an explanation
3. Give an example
4. React to the examiner

Giving Opinions

- I believe that...
- In my opinion...
- From my perspective..

Adding Ideas

- Furthermore...
- In addition...
- Another point is...

Comparing

- On the one hand... on the other hand...
- Compared to...
- In contrast...

Giving Examples

- For example...
- For instance...
- Such as...

Speculating

- It could be that...
- This might be because...
- It is possible that...