Dear Jyoti,

Thank you for being an important member of our dedicated and resilient donor community. Blossom For Pink's generous donation of $7,500.00 helps to provide one less worry to breast cancer patients as they undergo treatment. With your donation, we are meeting critical expenses of housing, transportation, utilities, and health insurance, allowing patients the time to take a breath and focus on healing.

"The medical expenses seemed unstoppable, and in reality, they are. I was fearful that I would lose my new home through this process. However, with the financial assistance from The Pink Fund, I was able to just stay on top of things which gave me the most amazing sense of peace.

Judy Vindici
Director

Thank you so very much for the herculean effort this organization takes on everyday to assist us in the weakest moment of our lives. With so many emotions in flux from the time of diagnosis through treatments and the many long lasting side effects of the cancer and treatments alike, this organization brings a little glimmer of hope.
