- 4.2 Staff will adhere to the human rights of individuals and work in accordance with professional codes of conduct, the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) guidance, UK GDPR and Data Protection Policies and Procedures at Evergreen Care Trust.
- Intentional breaches of privacy will be fully investigated with appropriate bodies informed and lessons learnt.

5. Procedure

5.1 Care Planning at the Start of a Service

- | The needs of the Member regarding privacy will always be considered during the care planning stage to ensure that Evergreen Care Trust can effectively meet the person's needs
- | This assessment will include what information about them can be shared and with whom. This includes the Member providing formal consent to share information. Where capacity is an issue, the principles of the Mental Capacity Act and associated best interest guidance will be followed
- | Preferred Member wishes must be communicated to other relevant staff at Evergreen Care Trust
- | Where possible, the care planning process will be completed in a private area where the Member can feel able to discuss areas of their care needs. This is particularly relevant if an assessment is taking place in a hospital or respite setting prior to discharge home

5.2 Member Rights

- | Member choices in relation to privacy will be respected at all times and all information relating to them will be treated in a confidential manner
- | Evergreen Care Trust recognises the right of Members to be left alone, undisturbed and free from intrusion and public attention. The Member also has a right to privacy with regard to personal data and both personal affairs and belongings

5.3 Staff Expectation, Behaviour and Professionalism

- | Staff will follow professional codes of conduct as well as operational policies and procedures at Evergreen Care Trust when considering privacy for Members. This includes all staff expectations around professionalism of communication
- | Staff will only discuss Members in the work environment if it is for the purpose of assessment, management and evaluation of care
- | Staff will not discuss any aspect of the Member's care outside of the work environment

5.4 Records Management

- | Records will be designed, used and stored in a manner which assures privacy
- | Records will only be made available to the Member's family and main Care Worker according to the wishes of the Member or if information requests fulfil the legal requirements for doing so
- | Staff can refer to for further information and guidance
- | Information sharing with appropriate health professionals will be done in line with UK GDPR and Data Protection Policies and Procedures at Evergreen Care Trust

5.5 Personal Care and Privacy

- | Particular attention will be given to preserving privacy in the use of bathrooms, toilets and when supporting any aspect of personal care. At the same time, health and safety and personal risk management will be considered and discussed
- | Staff will ensure that curtains/blinds are closed in order to ensure privacy during personal care and moving and handling
- | Any personal and sensitive items that may be deemed necessary care equipment (such as continence aids, catheters, dressings) will be kept out of view at all times to ensure that privacy is maintained
- | Staff will always knock on the Member's door and await a response before entering the room. Privacy will be respected around the Member's home at all times

5.6 Photography and Filming

Staff can refer to the policies available with regard to privacy, photography, filming and the use of CCTV at Evergreen Care Trust and to relevant CQC guidance.

5.7 Breach in Privacy

- | Any breach in the privacy of a Member will be considered a serious event. The incident will be fully investigated in accordance with UK GDPR, Data Protection Policies and Procedures at Evergreen Care Trust and there will be evidence available about what has been learnt to ensure that the risk of reoccurrence is reduced. Disciplinary action will be taken where the incident is considered to have been caused with intent

Evergreen Care Trust

Shyp House, 1 Barnack Road, Stamford, Lincolnshire, PE9 2NA

- | Any environmental or equipment fault which reduces the privacy of any Member must be reported to the Registered Care Manager or senior member of staff
- | Breaches of privacy of a serious nature will be referred to the local Safeguarding Board and appropriate regulatory body notifications will be completed by Caroline Joyce or delegated other, who has the relevant skills, knowledge and experience

5.8 Training and Education

- | Privacy forms part of the Care Certificate for care workers. New staff who have not already completed this will be expected to achieve this unit
- | Staff will be expected to review their professional code of conduct and be aware of what this means in practice
- | Training will be given with regard to UK GDPR and Data Security and Protection
- | Privacy will form part of the supervision process agenda at Evergreen Care Trust as well as at staff and Member meetings in order to review practice, seek feedback and determine quality assurance

5.9 Capacity and Privacy

The same rights of privacy apply to individuals who are proven to lack capacity, therefore staff must do the following:

- | Establish any previously expressed views or wishes of the individual regarding privacy from family and others
- | Observe Member behaviours to identify what the preferences may be for that individual wishing to have privacy
- | Continue to follow the core principles and practices as detailed within this policy, if deemed to be in the best interests of the Member to do so (in accordance with the Mental Capacity Act) when weighing up privacy. Refer to associated policies and procedures for further guidance

6. Definitions

6.1 Information Commissioner's Office

- | The ICO is the UK's independent body set up to uphold information rights in the public interest
- | This covers the following legislation:
 - | Data Protection Act
 - | Freedom of Information Act
 - | Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations
 - | General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR)
 - | Environmental Information Regulations
 - | INSPIRE Regulations
 - | eIDAS Regulation
 - | Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations
 - | NIS Regulations
 - | Investigatory Powers Act

6.2 Human Rights

- | These basic rights are based on values like dignity, fairness, equality, respect and independence. But human rights are not just abstract concepts, they are defined and protected by law. In Britain our human rights are protected by the Human Rights Act 1998
- | Human rights are the basic rights and freedoms that belong to every person in the world, from birth until death. They apply regardless of where you are from, what you believe or how you choose to live your life. They can never be taken away, although they can sometimes be restricted; for example, if a person breaks the law, or in the interests of national security

6.3 Privacy

- | In literal terms, privacy is defined as a state in which one is not observed or disturbed by other people, or the state of being free from public attention
- | For the purposes of health and social care, privacy is very personal and means different things to different people. Therefore in order to respect people, privacy services need to be personalised as much as possible

6.4 Care Certificate

- | The Care Certificate identifies a set of standards that social care and health workers follow. It describes the minimum standards that should be covered as part of the induction training of new care workers

Key Facts - Professionals

Professionals providing this service should be aware of the following:

- | Any breach of a person's privacy is a serious event and will be fully investigated to ensure there is a period of learning, reflection and change in practice
- | The environment where Members are supported needs to accommodate the ability to promote privacy
- | Your professional codes of conduct refer to your accountability in relation to supporting people with maintaining privacy
- | It is a fundamental right for everyone to have privacy and as professionals, your role is to promote and adhere to this right
