In submitting said Application, the undersigned gives permission for the competitor to participate in said Cajun Do Annual Open Karate Tournament to be held at Beauregard Parish Fairgrounds on August 1, 2026.

Acting for myself, or as the parent or legal guardian for the competitor, I do hereby assume all risk of injury to said contestant while participating in and traveling to and from said Cajun Do Annual Open Karate Tournament, and acting for myself, my heirs, personal representatives and assigns, do hereby release the tournament promoters, Cajun Do Korean Tang Soo Do, and Cajun Do Kwan and the representatives of said organizations, and any and all competitors and fellow participants, individually and collectively, from any liability (now and forever).

As a parent or legal guardian, I agree to indemnify any such organization for any loss or by reason of any claim by child or ward.

Right to Grant or Refuse Services Agreement

Cajun Do Korean Tang Soo Do reserves the right to grant or refuse services to any individual at its sole discretion. This includes, but is not limited to, the right to deny entry, participation in tournaments, or continued participation in future events if the behavior, attitude, or conduct of the student (or their parent/guardian, if applicable) is disruptive, disrespectful, unsafe, or otherwise detrimental to the event environment, staff, or other competitors. We are committed to providing a respectful, safe, and traditional competition environment for all participants. Violations of tournament rules, non-compliance with payment policies, or any actions deemed inappropriate by the Grandmaster or Staff may result in refusal or termination of services without refund. By signing below, you agree to allow Cajun Do to share images from the tournament online.

By signing below, I agree to the Tournament rules and regulations as stated in the Handbook.
