Extra's!

Working with Senators ✓

We have been working with Ron Wyden's office and are looking to expand to other senators to help bring equality to children with disabilities. Specifically when it comes to playgrounds at schools because play also brings learning and socializing which every child needs.

Equality on the playground equals equality and acceptance later on in life.

✓ ADA ACT

We are trying to get the ADA Act brought to the table to be revised to bring equality to playgrounds nationwide. Starting first with schools.

14% of the current school enrollment is disabled children. It is not mandatory for playgrounds to have play equipment for them, but we are trying to make it mandatory so that no child is left behind.

Every child deserves the right to have an equal opportunity to learn, grow, and play.
