

Free Competence Review

Projects are often critical to an organisation's success, and so we need to be sure that our people have the right skills and experience to be able to deliver.

We also need to make sure that we have good succession planning in place and that our project people have an attractive development path.

Finally, we need to make the most of our training budget – how do we know that the right training is being given to the right people at the right time?

PPPM are highly experienced in measuring where your project people are against what they need for their current and future roles. Using international standards, PPPM can provide a reliable picture of the strengths and weaknesses of your team.

What you get:

- Comprehensive assessment against key project competences
- Measurement against internationally recognised standards
- Clear, actionable report showing areas of strengths and weaknesses
- Review of individual and aggregate team skills included
- Realistic suggestions for staff development plans
- Decades of experience in running project teams at your service
- Performed by Chartered Project Professionals
- Follow up support and advice

All completely free, so no cost to you!
