Which course are you playing?

Your Course #1

Your Course #2
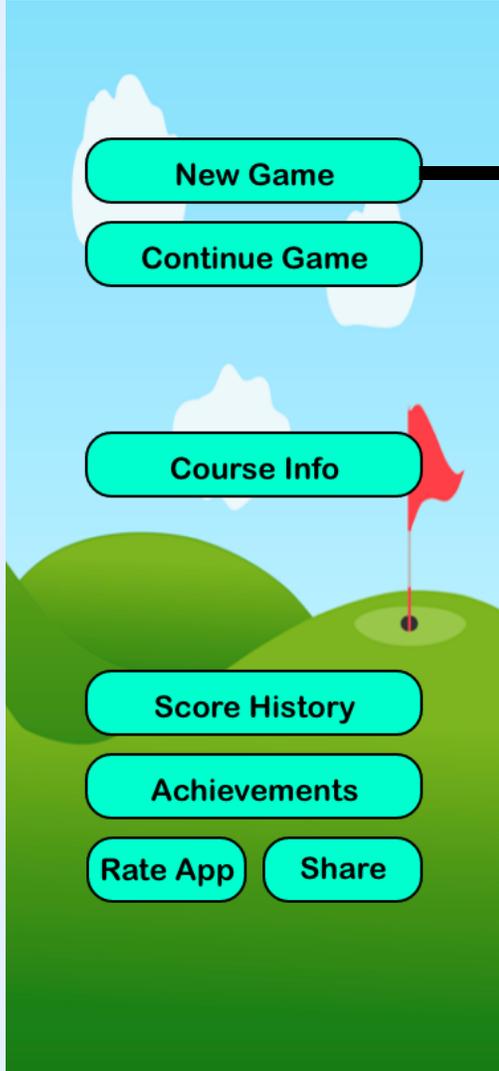

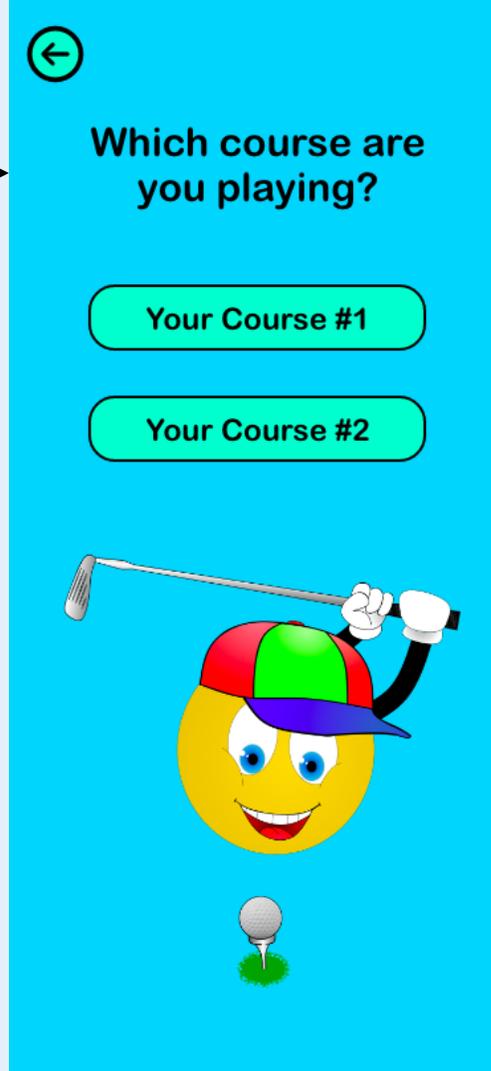

If your park has multiple courses, the player will choose which one they will be playing.

This selection automatically grabs the par value for each hole.

* If your park has 1 course, the player will not be shown this screen.

Course Selection

Number of Players Selection
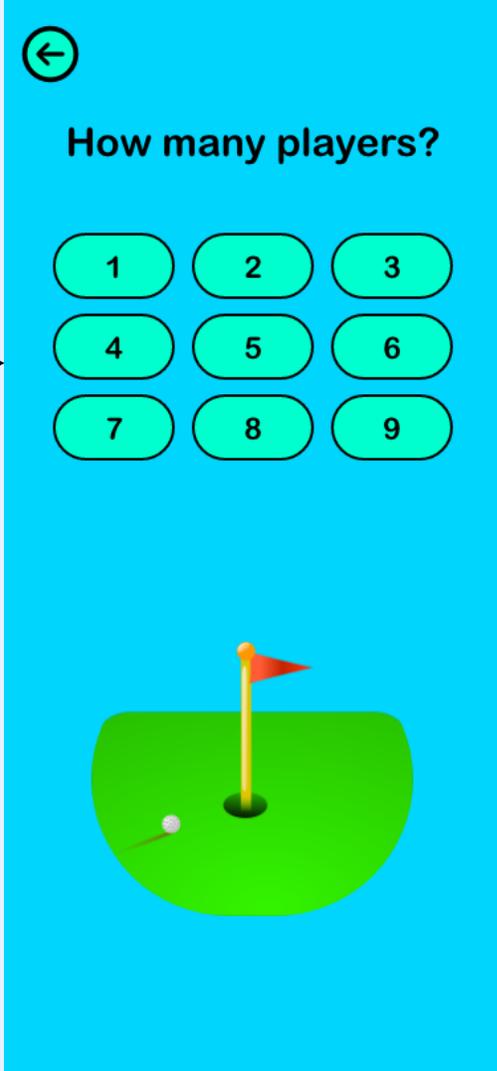

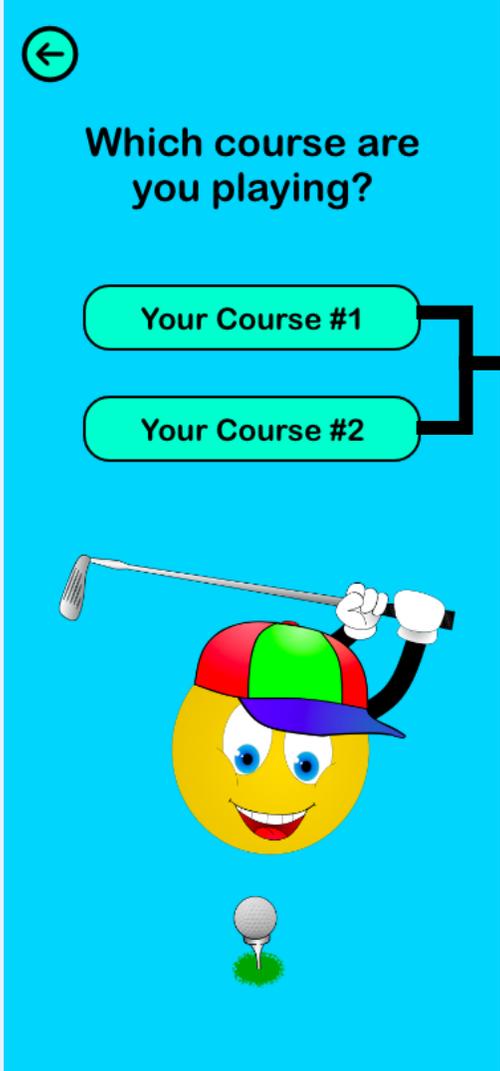

The player will then select the number of players in their party, up to a maximum of 9.

*If your course has party limits less than 9, this can be adjusted.

The scorecard allows for each player's name to be entered, as well as the color of their ball.

* The ball color can be changed at any time, just in case someone hits into the water ☺

For each hole, the par value is automatically populated for the course being played.

Scorecard
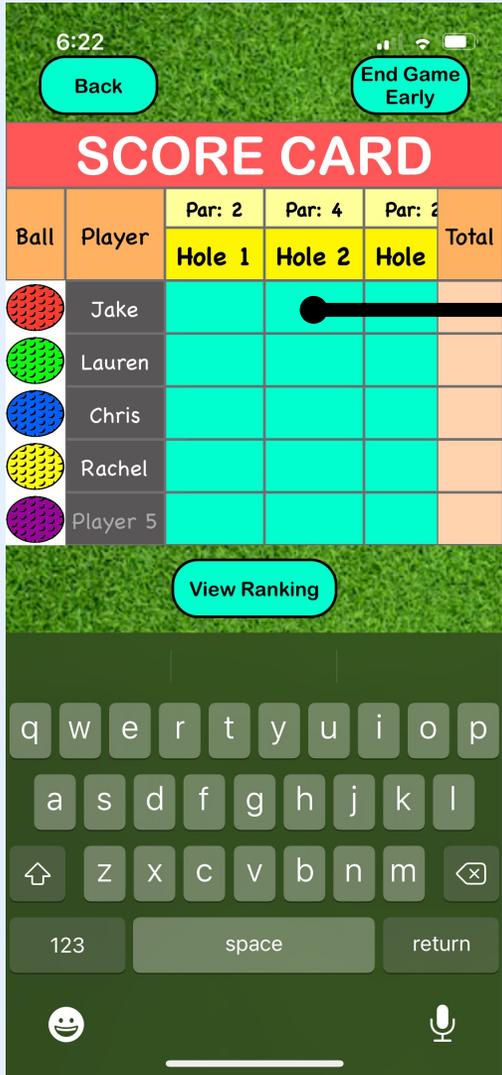

Score Entry
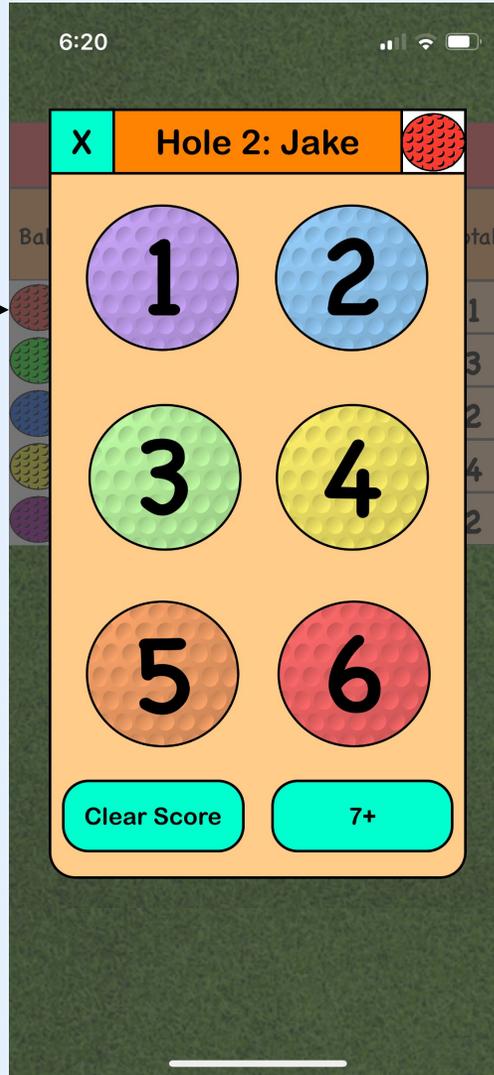

To enter a score, the player simply taps on the cell, and selects the score they received for the hole.
