

TOP AGENT MAGAZINE

DAWN MARIE BUTTREY

After working for the Department of Justice in Washington, DC for fifteen years, REALTOR® and Broker Dawn Marie Buttrey left that high stress environment and walked into a real estate office in her new hometown in Montana to start a new path. Born and raised in Big Sky Country, she was returning home to her roots, which would soon inspire the name of her brokerage, Resolute Roots Realty. She earned her real estate license in 2019 and her broker's license in 2021 in order to scale and shape her business. Today, Dawn Marie runs her thriving brokerage from an office in Sheridan and is currently expanding to a second office in Dillon. Representing all of southwest Montana, but particularly Ruby Valley, Dawn Marie focuses on building authentic relationships with homebuyers and sellers to help them reach their real estate goals.

Well known throughout her small community, Dawn Marie often bumps into people who already have her business card in their pocket. She regularly receives referrals from past clients and considers most of the people she works with to be friends. "I've been so blessed by people in this community and my former clients. Getting to work with people over and over is a sign that I'm doing something right," she says.

When it comes to marketing, Dawn Marie relies on high quality photography coupled with a well-rounded strategy to target media and digital outlets. "The visuals are the first impression and they really matter, so I focus on getting that right," she explains. Her website is filled with glowing testimonials from clients who have had a great experience working with Dawn Marie. Phrases like "highly professional" "detail-oriented" and "excellent ethics" say it all to prospective clients curious about the service they will receive.

In her spare time, Dawn Marie volunteers on the Fairgrounds Advisory Board, which is the organization responsible for caring for and improving the local county fairgrounds. Right now, they are working on different campaigns to raise funds to build a community event center. They also do historic preservation and are currently working to make some historic buildings more user-friendly so that they can be better appreciated. Additionally, Dawn Marie is very involved with her local church, particularly in leading the local missions committee.

As she looks to the future of her business, Dawn Marie is focused on expanding her offices by adding more agents to the team. As a highly achievement-oriented person, she loves a new challenge and the opportunity to grow and progress over the years. At the core of her business, however, is a focus on providing a service of integrity and respect for her clients. "Genuine kindness is how I became successful," she says. "Be genuinely kind to people and it will pay you in dividends."

To learn more about Dawn Marie Buttrey, call 406-600-4802, visit resoluteroots406.com
or email resoluteroots406@gmail.com