

A Vibrant, Transparent, Heartfelt, Young and Successful Author of over 80 books. Gretchen Jones Torbert, Ph.D., CHLC is a Life Coach, Humanitarian, Educator, Philanthropist, Entrepreneur, Mentor, Wife, Mother and Motivational Speaker who reaches the hearts of everyday people to give them inspiration through motivation.

Her story is real and will capture the hearts of many. Dr. Torbert is the Founder and CEO of Teachers Across the World, which houses over 100 chapters including the local chapter of Teachers of Atlanta that was developed to inspire and celebrate educators. Dr. Torbert uses the platform of Teachers Across the World to constantly seek great pioneers that have impacted the world of education including innovators, entrepreneurs, dreamers, visionaries and change agents. As she seeks out these individuals, she engages in personal development opportunities through literature, circumstances and positions. She has creatively overcome several challenges by zoning into her dreams and walking in her purpose. Her intention is to inspire and help others find their purpose. As a humanitarian and philanthropist, she connects with her community to save lives in amazing ways. This allows her to help others improve their lives in different capacities and to encourage them to live a life that is promising towards a future of hope and success.

As an advocate for continuous education, her Ph.D. journey has been a testimony to her persistent and loving spirit. Dr. Gretchen Jones Torbert, Ph.D., CHLC is available for speaking engagements, symposiums or conference guest appearances, her products/ books are also available for give-a-ways, instructional purposes and distributions.
