UNIVERSAL LANGUAGE

15 - 17 October 2021

THE EXHIBITION:

Art is the universal language of the world that speaks to all people by evoking ideas, thoughts and emotions in abundance.

Following on from our successful Universal Language group show at the Montserrat Contemporary Art Gallery in Chelsea, New York, GABRIEL FINE ARTS are proud to announce the fourth UNIVERSAL LANGUAGE exhibition at the Copthorne Tara Hotel London. Presenting a selection of inspiring visual artists from around the globe, we welcome you to a showcase of uplifting and diverse artworks that are situated in a historic part of London, adjacent to High Street Kensington station and a stone's throw from the Royal Albert Hall, UNIVERSAL LANGUAGE coincides with FRIEZE LONDON. Featuring artworks by Victoria Ascanio, Lalage Florio,

Akshita Gandhi, Caitlin O’Gorman, PITANIUS, Beata Maria Rzepecka, Konstantin S, Masked Sphinx, Jennifer Suellen Rye and Michael Yamaoka.

ART & WINE TASTING

An evening dedicated to the pleasure of your senses! The event will start with a unique and refreshing sparkling wine, and this to be paired with a vibrant and cutting-edge painting. Followed by a white Burgundy, the land famous for its best Chardonnay in the world, that is going to offer us a refined oak-aged wine to match with the intensity and depth of our art on display. To conclude the evening in greatness, it will be finalised with a red, full-body, rich and enticing liquor. A styling pair with the strong character of passion and intensity, a great silky texture that will caress your palate. TICKETS HERE
