ARTIST PROFILE

David Pittaway is an Australian guitarist and composer internationally recognised for his long-standing association with Robert Fripp and the Guitar Craft tradition.

A touring member of The League of Crafty Guitarists (1989–1991), Pittaway participated in a two-year world tour across North America and Europe, recording multiple releases and appearing in international broadcasts including BBC and MTV.

He remains active within the Crafty Guitar lineage, performing in 2015 in the Netherlands with Robert Fripp and The Symphony of Crafty Guitarists.

Pittaway is the founding guitarist of Kiss of Reality, now performing internationally.

ARTISTIC POSITIONING

David Pittaway represents a direct lineage from the Guitar Craft movement founded by Robert Fripp. His work bridges progressive art-rock, contemporary classical discipline, world-fusion exploration and large-ensemble guitar performance.

Through Kiss of Reality and his solo world-fusion work, Pittaway continues to evolve the Guitar Craft tradition into a contemporary international performance context.
