OFFICIAL COMMUNIQUE

For some time, unjustified nervousness has been seen in certain circles, social networks and newspapers about simple statements of intent between Société Minière de Kilo-Moto, “SOKIMO”, a commercial company which is free to consider any economic model which is capable of ensuring its survival and development through dividend access on the one hand, and AJN, a company listed in Canada, on the other hand.

At the current stage, there is no definite commitment, apart from a statement of intentions between the two parties which, in order to be materialized, would require a whole procedure following firstly the approval of the transaction by the Board of Directors, then ratification by the General Meeting, and finally full discharge by the Government represented by the Portfolio Ministry.

It is admittedly true that meticulous work is being done by the competent departments in order to list SOKIMO’s mining titles and identify the dormant interests.

The ZANI KODO gold deposit which is fuelling the debate is the subject of requests from the value-creating partnerships but the State will have the final word pursuant to its permanent sovereignty over its raw materials.

On the basis of the above, it is important to stress that the Portfolio Minister, Professor Clément KUETE NYIMI BEMUNA, has been keeping a close eye, since his accession to the head of that Ministry, on compliance with the legal procedures concerning the management of Corporations within the State’s Portfolio. He is convinced that his Ministry is ready to play its role of supervision and support for such corporations, basing itself on objective assessment criteria, in accordance with the vision of the Head of State, Félix Antoine Tshisekedi Tshilombo.

COMMUNIQUE OFFICIEL

Il s'observe depuis quelques temps, une agitation injustifiée dans certains milieux, les réseaux sociaux et les journaux autour de simples déclarations d'intention contre la Société Minière de Kilo Moto « SOKIMO » une société commerciale, libre de réfléchir sur tout modèle économique pouvant assurer sa survie et son développement à travers un accès dividendes d'une part, et A/N Société listée en bourse au Canada, d'autre part.

Au stade actuel, il n'y a aucun engagement définitif, si ce n'est qu'une déclaration d'intentions entre les deux parties qui exigera, pour sa concrétisation toute une procédure suivante : l'approbation de la transaction par le Conseil d'Administration d'abord ensuite l'entérinement par l'Assemblée Générale et en fin le quitus du Gouvernement représenté par le Ministère du Portefeuille.

Il est certes vrai qu'un travail minutieux est entrain d'être élaboré par les services compétents pour lister les titres miniers de SOKIMO et identifier les participations dormantes.

Le gisement d'or de ZANI KODO qui alimente les débats, fait l'objet des sollicitations des partenariats créateurs des valeurs mais dont, le dernier mot reviendra à l'Etat en vertu de sa souveraineté permanente sur ses matières premières.

De ce qui précède, il est important de souligner que le Ministre du Portefeuille, le Professeur Clément KUTE NYIMI BEMUNA, veille au grain, depuis son avènement à la tête de ce Ministère, au respect des procédures légales en matière de gestion des Entreprises du Portefeuille de l'Etat. Il reste convaincu que son Ministère est disposé à jouer son rôle d'encadrement et d'accompagnement de ces entreprises en se basant sur les éléments d'appréciation objectifs et cela conformément à la vision de Son Excellence Monsieur le Président de la République et Chef de l'Etat Félix Anzore Ishwekezi Ishulombi.
