

CREED ONE

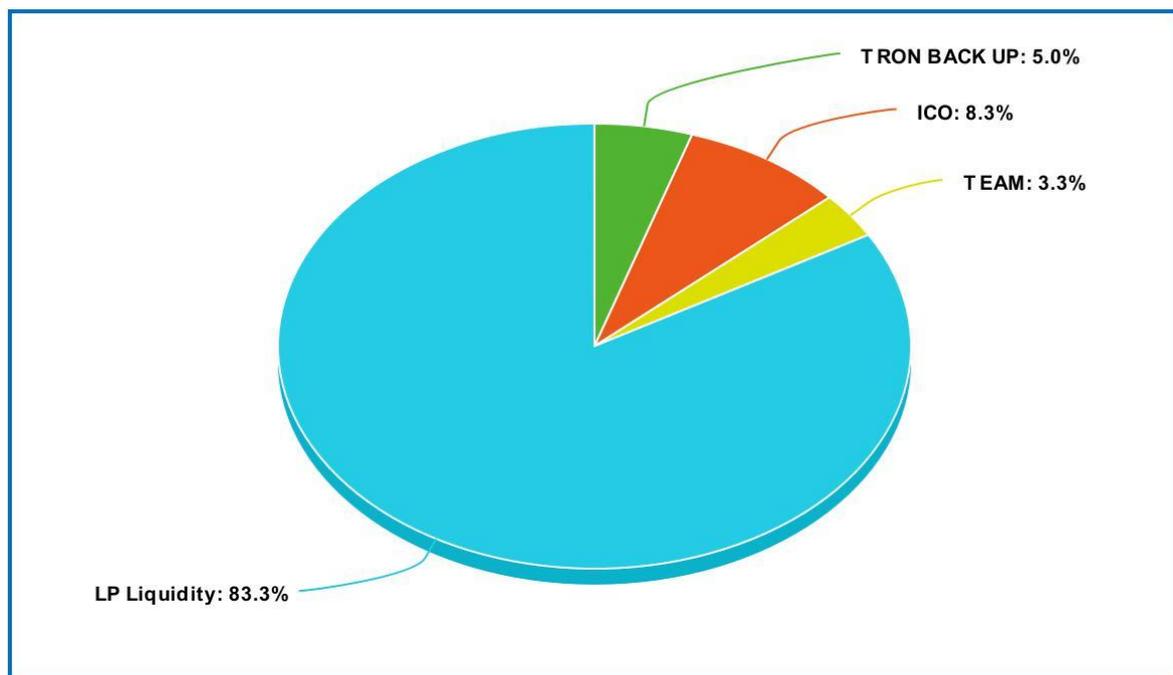

CREED ONE is the BEP20 token uniting Creed Finance ecosystem assets all in one place for greater exposure and to provide additional value on the assets. CR1 will work on its own dapps such as staking and games. Main goal of the project will be building a payment platform and adding CR1 as a payment tool to current and future payment platforms.

CR1 aims to build and maintain a strong store of value through self-supporting contract. Internal income tools such as staking Dapps, nfts, games and external income tools such as investing other crypto assets, real world assets are going to play a major factor on CR1 success.

Low supply of CR1 will make decimals matter in the future. Auto buybacks and manual buybacks will decrease the supply until 10,000,000 CR1. Manual buybacks through external incomes will keep on and the community will determine how to proceed.

CR1 is designed to target $1 price for each. Each and every member of the community will be supporting each other to reach the first target and set higher targets to reach.
