We will have fun going over these questions.

Remember beloved, the purpose of this exam is to teach us. It is not to find fault with our study habits. Rather we will use our notes in an “open book” setting. If you can answer these questions without looking at your notes, you are much smarter than I. I had to review my notes to prepare the questions.

We will look at each question, discuss it fully as we learn together.

I would suggest that you get a note pad and write down the answers and any other detail we discuss on each topic.

Do not shrink at the thought of this review. It is meant solely as a teaching tool. Our objective is to learn and we will do that together.....
