

The Two Becoming “One Flesh”

Have you ever wondered why God would fashion Adam by taking the dust of the earth and forming Him?

And then wonder why He didn't do the same with Eve?

Why would God take a rib from Adam and fashion that rib into a woman?

After all, God had the same earth in order to fashion her that he had for Adam. Yet God chose to take that man, put him to sleep, take a rib from his side, and create that rib into what Adam described as “woman”.

Yep, it was Adam who called Eve – a woman.

Why not create her as he did Adam?

The answer is obvious. She had to come from Him in order for them to become “One Flesh.” They were to be “like minded.” They were to be on the “same page” with one another.

Physically these two were to be counterparts of one another.

Their companionship they thought would last forever.

They knew nothing of what had transpired before they were created, nor did they know anything about the evil taking place around them.

As you think about the man/woman situation only we who have or have had that special relationship with a spouse whereby you are excited to see them when they have been away, can truly relate to this wonderful relationship.

Or know the tinge in your heart when your spouse is across the room and throws you a wink. Or that certain feeling you get when he/she touches your hair when they pass your chair or as the song goes; calls you at 6 on the dot. Or a line a day when you are far away or sending the warmth of a secret smile

That beloved is what God is after in the husband and wife relationship.

How sad it is on T.V. when you see these women screaming at the camera, or giving ½ of the peace sign to the audience. Or wearing simply horrible clothing with their hair colored and tats all over their precious bodies.

Not supposed to be like that beloved;

How wonderful it is to have friends who love one another. Who care and want the best for their mate. Who always speak well of one another in a tone that is soft and warm.

The interesting thing about all of this is that to the world, the husband and wife relationship is to mirror the relationship between Jesus Christ and His beloved followers.

Christ and His church. Having become one in the flesh. No longer any separation between us and Him. Joined at the hip, with His love pouring out of our lives to all around us.

There can never be this close relationship between the same sex. It is an abnormal relationship.

I understand the position of the LGBTQRS or whatever they call themselves, but one thing is clear for us. It is not that they want to understand our position, they cannot understand our position. To them, our position is complete foolishness. They do not have the capacity to understand our position.

That is the reason we are not to try and change their thinking. They need the “life’ within them to understand our position. You are asking a “dog to fly” when you try and reason with them. Foolishness is the best they can muster for our reasoning.

They do not need “more information” they need “new life within” Their spirit is dead and needs to be re-born. They need Jesus Christ – period.

It is hard to discuss this issue without meddling, but needs to be discussed anyway.

Beloved, we fell in Adam. We did not fall in Eve. She was deceived, Adam was not deceived. Humanity died in Adam – period. However, there was a penalty put upon Eve. Even though she was taken from Adam’s side, she now became subservient to man. Read carefully 1st Timothy 2:13-14

Eve certainly thought the serpent spoke truth to her. She and her husband should not die, the fruit was good to make one wise, and that in eating it they would become ‘like Gods. Thus she fell into transgressions (sin). She also brought her husband with her into that sin and along with him, all of humanity

Satan had no power to turn Adam. However, Eve did. She was the cause of his eating.

It appears that man is the more proper person to bare rule and authority and it is right for the woman to learn and the man to teach. The subjection of the woman to the man is confirmed as we read Genesis 3:16. “Your desire shall be for your husband (not a physical desire, but one of “ruling over”

Paul went further in instructing the man to “love – agape your wife – and the woman who is never commanded to love her husband, is required to “submit” yourself to your own husband. Husbands love, wives submit – simple huh

Further, Paul tells us that the order of things in the home is: 1st Corinthians 11:3 “I want you to know that the head of every man is Jesus Christ, the head of the woman is the man and God is the head of Christ.”

That is His plan – not mine, not mans but Gods.

God’s order is first God, then the husband then the wife then the children.

I do not know of one family where this order is usually (non-spoken, but adhered to by all) that is not a loving, caring, and successful family.

After all beloved, “God so loved the world (order or arrangement) that HE sent His Son to bring order to this chaotic world.

Do you know Him as personal Savior? If not, it is easy – just cry out – Help me, Lord Jesus and He will.
