By signing above, payee certifies that the installation was completed according to Columbia Basin Electric Cooperative (CBEC) specifications. Payee understands that they are responsible for meeting all program standards and that payment is not due until program standards are met. By signing this agreement, the consumer acknowledges that the measure(s) are installed and operating at the location indicated. The consumer agrees to allow CBEC or its representative to perform inspections on the work. The consumer also certifies that the work was completed within CBEC service territory. The consumer agrees to release CBEC from any liability associated with the completed work and recognizes that in no way is CBEC responsible for the safety or satisfactory performance of this work. CBEC will not accept any liability caused by the consumer's participation in this program.
