Coffee flavors and notes

Guatemala smooth, fruity, and caramel	A layer of refreshment and liveliness, golden sweetness of caramelized sugar, with a buttery melt-in-your-mouth quality. It's a well-balanced cup that's perfect for those who enjoy a rich, smooth coffee with a hint of natural fruitiness and comforting.
Ethiopian spice, berry and chocolate	The spice provides a subtle kick, while the berry adds refreshing, tangy contrast to the warmth of the spice. The chocolate ties everything together with its rich, indulgent sweetness.
Peru Citrus, floral and chocolate	The citrus note adds a refreshing, zesty burst to the coffee, while the floral note brings elegance and hints of jasmine and lavender. The chocolate adds a luxurious texture to the overall flavor profile.
Congo strawberry, honey and toasted nuts	These notes create a beautifully layered coffee- the strawberry brings a fresh, slightly sweet and fruity burst to the coffee. The honey offers rich, smooth natural sweetness, while the toasted nuts add warmth and balance, making it feel both comforting and earthy.
Espresso blend rich caramel, dark chocolate and brown sugar	Smooth and full-bodied, this espresso delivers a lively burst of fruity brightness, balanced by rich undertones of caramel and brown sugar. As it develops, deep notes of caramel and molasses emerge, finishing with a lingering sweetness and both satisfying depth. Perfect on its own or in a milk-based drink - where its flavour and body shines through
