Play nights have officially began as of Wednesday May 12th. They will continue to be free for all members until June 12th when we begin awarding points toward buckles. The cost will be $3 for members and $5 for non-members who will not be eligible for points.

Maciva and Turtle Harding will be running the cookshack with the help of Grace Williams. All money raised supports our youth riding team.

Erika Raggio and Susan Allen could use help setting up and running the arena gate every Wednesday play night this season.

CIRA is this Saturday and Sunday at the 49ers.

Youth Riding Team barrel clinic Saturday May 22nd with instructor Tracy Hammond.

Youth Riding Team goat tying clinic Sunday May 23rd with instructor Jamie Parvin. 10am-4pm

The Boy scouts will be serving food at all this summer's races and for the State Omoksee.

Silver Creek Drill team will be performing during our barrel and pole series so come and watch them in action.

The front fence damage is being repaired this weekend by Lucky Acres.

Don Cook had been busy acquiring new sign board sponsors.

Our first Barrel and Pole series race is Thursday June 10th

The youth riding team held their raffle drawing April 30th and raised $1300 for their awards, recognitions, and money to purchase food for the play night concessions.

Mike Morbeck designed and built a 4-step mounting block for the club. It is next to the round pen and is built to last for many years.
