Preliminary Grant Inquiry

The RMHF welcomes project ideas that advance public education, scientific research, historical preservation, or conservation of the Rocky Mountain Horse.

Tell us briefly about your idea. Short answers are welcome—no formal proposals or attachments are needed at this stage. You can use extra pages if necessary.

Your name: Your eMail:

Group or Organization affiliated with (if applicable):

Signature of President/Treasurer of RMHA required, if application submitted by Committee Chair/Member

1. What would you like to do? Give your project a name and briefly describe the proposed activities.

2. How will the project benefit the breed and the public? For example, will it provide education, preserve historical materials, support research, or address conservation needs? Who will benefit or have access to the results?

3. Who will carry out the project, and when? Identify the people or group responsible and your anticipated timeframe.

4. Approximately how much funding is needed:
   Estimated total project cost: $

   Amount requested from the Foundation: $
   Briefly describe what Foundation funding would pay for. Estimates are fine

5. How do you expect to raise support for the project? Briefly describe any planned fundraising, existing funds, or other funding sources. It is fine if these plans are still developing.

After reviewing your inquiry, a Foundation Trustee will contact you to discuss your idea and whether it fits the Foundation's purposes and funding process. If the project appears to be a good fit, we may request a simple budget and additional details.

Submitting this inquiry does not guarantee approval or funding. Approved projects are subject to a written agreement and reporting requirements.
