We value your trust and want to maintain open and honest communication about all aspects of our childcare services. Please read the important notice below and feel free to reach out with any questions.

Important Information: Liability Insurance

As of 1/24/2024, KKAPVA does not currently carry liability insurance. This decision was not made lightly and is due to limited financial resources. While we strive to provide a safe and nurturing environment at all times, we feel it is our responsibility to make you aware of this.

Please understand:

- Our staff remains fully committed to the health, safety, and development of every child in our care.
- We follow strict safety protocols and procedures as outlined by [state/local licensing authority].
- We are actively exploring funding options and working toward reinstating liability coverage in the future.
