Hello everyone!

So what's with the outside world continually trying to intrude on my writing time? Unfortunately, I'm told I have to at least take a look at each attempted intrusion before deciding whether or not to ignore it.

Still, writing is happening, progress is being made.

Excuse me? Excuse me?

"I thought yesterday was the first day of the rest of my life, but it turns out today is."

– Steve Martin

Books Project Status

While I have a number of projects in the queue, the two main development projects remain the epic Black Tower sequel and the final novella in the Gordon's Porch trilogy.

Progress is happening on Black Tower Two, less so than I would like, but progress nonetheless. So great being back in the tower. Still too early in the project to say for sure, but the publication target still looks to be sometime in January. Big project...

I did manage to make more outline notes for Gordon's Porch Three, looking to dig into the actual writing in a month or so when I've scheduled a step back from the Black Tower project (prior to intense review/edit). If all goes well, the Gordon novella will publish in November.

I should have a better idea of where I am on both projects sometime in September.

Shylmahn Migration .99 Promotion

A very rare promotion... kindle edition of award-winning The Shylmahn Migration just .99, three days only.

Book One in the Shylmahn Trilogy... brings gritty realism to the nightmare of an overwhelming invasion of Earth.
"Intelligent, epic science fiction."

The Shylmahn Migration novel is a recipient of the Readers' Favorite Five Stars award.

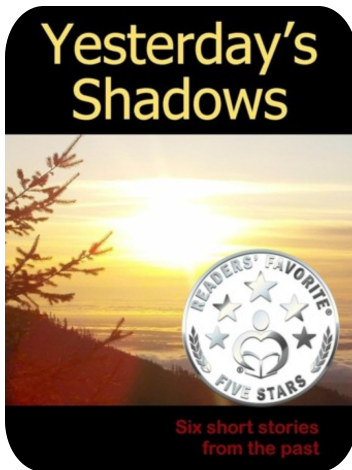

The Shylmahn Trilogy is a recipient of the Readers' Favorite Five Stars award. The miniseries screenplay adaptation of the Shylmahn Migration won the Pacific Northwest Screenwriting competition.

Collecting Classic Doctor Who Novelizations

I've been collecting the novelizations of Classic Dr. Who for a year and a half, now have 135 books, and a couple of dozen to go. I'm reading them in broadcast order, just started the first title in the Tom Baker era. Great stories, and now with the best sfx, the mind's eye.

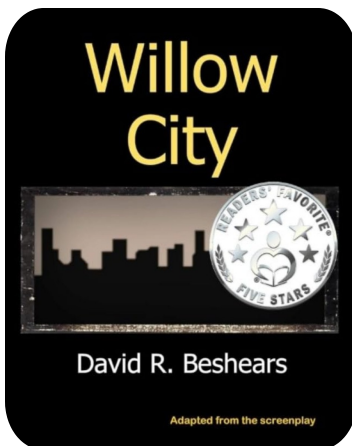

Yesterday's Shadows Latest Award Recipient

The short story collection was uploaded to Readers' Favorite and has received the website's Readers' Favorite Five Stars award.

"The author has written an anthology that is very thought-provoking and will resonate with the reader long after the book has been closed and put on a shelf."

-- Bernadette Longu for Readers' Favorite

August Book of the Month

This month's book of the month is Willow City. Dystopian science fiction in an atmosphere of black and white film noir.

A soldier returns home to the damp, gray streets of Willow City to search for his missing brother. Willow City, one of the eight authoritarian city-states of the Federation. Willow City, a world of dark secrets and shadowy characters.

A recipient of the Readers' Favorite Five Stars award:

"Willow City will appeal to readers who enjoy atmospheric, character-driven mysteries set against dystopian backdrops. It blends the sensibilities of classic detective fiction with speculative elements, offering a portrayal of loyalty, resistance, and quiet defiance in a society where every move is monitored."
