

Making Sense of Your WORTH

Attachment is the foundation of every decision we make in every relationship we have. MSOYW follows a step-by-step action plan to develop secure attachment and positive self-worth.

Parenting for Positive Self-WORTH

Parenting is hard. Parenting your child to know their worth is even harder. PPSW teaches caregivers how to raise children to have positive self-worth and secure attachment.

PALS Kids Club and Nurture Group

Designed to meet the complex needs of children to achieve healing from undesirable behaviors. Participants are shown new tools and skills for emotional regulation in order to bring peace to any home, school, or work environment.
