

Before we see satans fate and the judgement of God (82) on the lost, let us just look back and recognize how the lost of the Tribulation period knew what they were doing was evil, acknowledged it, and then still carried on with absolutely no repentance. Yes, they mourned over their fate but did absolutely nothing to change it! (see printout Luke 8) or like Judas did, they will recognize their sin and not do anything about it!
(see printout of Revelation 18:1-5, 9-13)

And why? Because they rebelled against the God that they knew deep down was their Creator over and over and over again! That is why Pharaoh's heart was hardened during the plagues and unhardened just long enough to let the Israelites leave Egypt, only to be rehardened to cause his grimie to chase after them. In Hebrews 3:7-9 it says: Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says: "Today, if you will hear His voice, Do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, in the day of trial in the wilderness, when your fathers tested Me, tried Me, and saw My works for forty years. That is why, in these very very last days we need to know whats true because the lie will increase, evil will be called good (Gender Dysforia, Abortion - "That's why God gave us free will", Climate worship, LGBTQBSTUV rights, leftist indoctrination starting in preschool, ...) and the good being called evil (Charlie Kirk, the true church, the institution of family and marriage) and God will not be allowed to participate in society, or government, Oh yeah, "and there will be wars, and rumors of wars, earthquakes in diverse places (storms), pestilence (pandemics and others) and then they will deliver you up... and you will be killed and hated by all nations (Israel and Christians)... Then many false prophets will rise up and deceive many. (83) And because lawlessness will abound (no longer 2-3 times a year, but rather daily like we have today); the love of many will grow cold." He warned us 2,000 years ago exactly what today would look like so that we will amplify our speaking the truth in love so that we can be a part of keeping people from having their hearts be hardened; so that through our ministry people will become "Lydiatized" (this is the act of the Holy Spirit entering someones heart) as it says in Acts 16:13-14: And on the Sabbath day we went out of the city to the riverside, where prayer was customarily made; and we sat down and spoke to the women who met there. Now a certain woman named Lydia heard us. She was a seller of purple from the city of Thyatira, who worshiped God (she believed in the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob). The Lord opened her heart to heed the things spoken by Paul. (The Gospel). note: Lydiatized believers cannot, and will not, ever have their hearts hardened.

Revelation 20:1-3 Satan's fate is different than the fate of the false prophet and the Anti-Christ (who are forever bathing in the fiery bathwater of hell and being tormented day and night his fate is to be bound in the bottomless pit for 1,000 years (the duration of the 1,000 year reign of Christ). This will be a time very similar to the Garden of Eden but without Satan, or his fallen angels present to deceive. You see those who have made it through the Tribulation, and have professed Jesus as Lord (no unbelievers there at the onset) will be given a long life, in ideal circumstances, with Jesus reigning and ruling from Jerusalem. (I will try and compile the Scriptures that speak to the Millennial (84) reign of Christ, since we will be there reigning and ruling with Him at that time).

Revelation 20:4-6 A picture of us, and the martyrs of the Tribulation period, reigning and ruling in resurrected bodies. Verse 5 says the rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years was ended. These are the lost souls of all ages who will not come to life (receive their hell bodies) until the white Throne judgement which comes at the end of the 1,000 year reign. (I was incorrect at placing this judgement prior to the 1,000 year reign last week). Verse 6: Blessed are those of the first resurrection, which are the saved of all ages.

Revelation 20:7-10 After 1,000 years of Jesus ruling there will be multitudes of people, and nations, who have once again rejected Jesus just because of their evil and selfish hearts. They will have the mindset of, "Eat drink and be merry", and "I'm gonna live forever" because I am sure that this 1,000 year period will be sickness, cancer and disease free. These people will reject our ministry purely because it does not suit them, or their lifestyles. This will be a "In the days of Noah 2.0". And just like those eight delivered from the flood, that were counted as righteous, only to have turned in to "people whose hearts were continually evil." (Quora says 448 years from the Septuagint, our ancientpaths.org say 339 years, Our Noah's Arc timeline book looks to be about 220 years.) So, evil human nature can exponentially increase even in idealic settings with the Creator available 24/7.

Revelation 20:11 (The White Throne Judgment)

Reading in to this a little deeper we can determine that this is taking place somewhere only God knows. It is not on earth because the earth is gone ("earth and sky fled away"). And it is not in Heaven because Heaven can not be polluted with the lost of all ages. We know that Jesus is the "Him who was seated on it (the throne) because during these white throne trials every knee will bow and profess that He is Lord. This will of course be too late.

Revelation 20:12 The dead great and small means from all walks of life. The wealthy popular along with the desolate regular people. Here we are told that several books are opened along with the Book of Life. I can imagine the process to be: ① The Book of Life is opened for you to see that your name ain't in it! ② The other books are opened to ones name and all of the evil things that are person did will be listed. Everything from lying to murder and all selfish deeds. Everyone of them escalating the eternal punishment. (All sin needs to be punished and since their sins were not covered by the Blood of Christ; the Christ that they are standing before they will have to pay for their own sins.)

Revelation 20:13-14 All sinners from Cain to the last non-believer of the Tribulation period will partake in this and then Death (satan) and Hades (the holding place of torment) are also cast into the Lake of Fire.

Revelation 20:15 I believe "not found written" is equivalent to blotted out. We know that children and the unaccountable are immediately in heaven upon their death. The Psalms and other Scriptures mention, not having their names blotted out, and so I believe you can have your name blotted out by continuous rejection of the truth.
