you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you; and the plague shall not be on you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

14 'So this day shall be to you a memorial; and you shall keep it as a feast to the LORD throughout your generations. You shall keep it as a feast by an everlasting ordinance. 15 Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. On the first day you shall remove leaven from your houses. For whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel. 16 On the first day there shall be a holy convocation, and on the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation for you. No manner of work shall be done on them; but that which everyone must eat—that only may be prepared by you. 17 So you shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for on this same day I will have brought your armies out of the land of Egypt. Therefore you shall observe this day throughout your generations as an everlasting ordinance. 18 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty-first day of the month at evening. 19 For seven days no leaven shall be found in your houses, since whoever eats what is leavened, that same person shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he is a stranger or a native of the land. 20 You shall eat nothing leavened; in all your dwellings you shall eat unleavened bread.' 21 Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel and said to them, "Pick out and take lambs for yourselves according to your families, and kill the Passover lamb. 22 And you shall take a bunch of hyssop, dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood that is in the basin. And none of you shall go out of the door of his house until morning. 23 For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians; and when He sees the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over the door and not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to strike you. 24 And you shall observe this thing as an ordinance for you and your sons forever. 25 It will come to pass when you come to the land which the LORD will give you, just as He promised, that you shall keep this service. 26 And it shall be, when your children say to you, 'What do you mean by this service?' 27 that you shall say, 'It is the Passover sacrifice of the LORD, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt when He struck the Egyptians and delivered our households.' " So the people bowed their heads and worshiped. 28 Then the children of Israel went away and did so; just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

29 And it came to pass at midnight that the LORD struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of livestock. 30 So Pharaoh rose in the night, he, all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

31 Then he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, "Rise, go out from among my people, both you and the children of Israel. And go, serve the LORD as you have said.
32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone; and bless me also."

33 And the Egyptians urged the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste. For they said, "We shall all be dead." 34 So the people took their dough before it was leavened, having their kneading bowls bound up in their clothes on their shoulders.
35 Now the children of Israel had done according to the word of Moses, and they had asked from the Egyptians articles of silver, articles of gold, and clothing. 36 And the LORD had given the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they granted them what they requested. Thus they plundered the Egyptians.

37 Then the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides children. 38 A mixed multitude went up with them also, and flocks and herds—a great deal of livestock. 39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they had brought out of Egypt; for it was not leavened, because they were driven out of Egypt and could not wait, nor had they prepared provisions for themselves.

40 Now the sojourn of the children of Israel who lived in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years. 41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years—on that very same day—it came to pass that all the armies of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. 42 It is a night of solemn observance to the LORD for bringing them out of the land of Egypt. This is that night of the LORD, a solemn observance for all the children of Israel throughout their generations.

43 And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "This is the ordinance of the Passover: No foreigner shall eat it. 44 But every man's servant who is bought for money, when you have circumcised him, then he may eat it. 45 A sojourner and a hired servant shall not eat it. 46 In one house it shall be eaten; you shall not carry any of the flesh outside the house, nor shall you break one of its bones. 47 All the congregation of Israel shall keep it. 48 And when a stranger dwells with you and wants to keep the Passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as a native of the land. For no uncircumcised person shall eat it. 49 One law shall be for the native-born and for the stranger who dwells among you."

50 Thus all the children of Israel did; as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did. 51 And it came to pass, on that very same day, that the LORD brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt according to their armies.

13 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 2 "Consecrate to Me all the firstborn, whatever opens the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and beast; it is Question: A reader asks: "How many prophecies are there in the Bible?"

Response: The Bible has 1,817 prophecies, as in predictions about the future, according to J. Barton Payne in his book the "Encyclopedia of Biblical Prophecy." He breaks it down as 1,239 prophecies in the Old Testament and 578 prophecies in the New Testament, involving a total of 737 separate subjects. He identifies 8,352 verses of the Bible's 31,124 verses as containing prophecy, meaning the Bible is 27 percent prophecy.

Of all the books that have ever been written -- and by some estimates that amounts to more than 100 million since the dawn of writing -- the Bible stands alone as uniquely associated with predictive prophecy.

As a matter of fact 63,779 the Bible Cross references, and verifies itself. It is estimated that around 2,500 prophecies have been made in the Bible, of tha a little more than 2,000 have come to pass. The rest will come to pass as well but they are in the future-(The 7 year Tribulation, The 1,000 year reign, and the New Heavens and the New Earth).

Taking just the birth of Jesus, the Messiah, approximately 12 prophecies exis -Born in a manger, born of a virgin, from the branch of Jesse, from the lineage of David, from the Tribe of Judah, born in Bethlehem, called out of Egypt, the slaughter of the innocence that would come about because of His birth (Harods jealousy), is 12 factorial: 479,001,600:1

Just under 480,000,000:1 - that is totally doable!

Now lets go to 31 phophecies of what the Messiah would do: If there were 250,000,000 people during Jesus' day that would mean that 1 of those 250,000,000 would have had to: die by crucifixion at the age of 33, be of Jewish descent from David; Jesse; and the Tribe of Judah, be born away from his hometown in Bethlehem, have been a teacher using parables, able to heal people, raise the dead, and perform miracles, He would have had to ride into Jerusalem on a donkey, hailed as the Messiah but then rejected, be beaten, mocked, spat upon, had His beard plucked out, disfigured beyond reckognition yet no have one broken bone, had two thiefs hanging next to Him on crosses of their own, had His garments and belongings gambled for and be basically abandoned by his followers. Take all that in consideration (31 prophecies needing to be fulfilled in that 1 week time frame, or come to conclusion in that 1 week is 1 in 2.54×10^{28} that is 254 with 26 0's. 254,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000

In context: take a dime 3/4" wide and 1/16" thick. Hollow out the earth and fill it with the dimes. Unfortunately 1 earth would only hold 1/10 of the dimes. It would take 10 full earths. Now amongst all those dimes is one that has a small red dot on it. The odd's of 31 prophecies of Jesus being fulfilled is a blind person reaching in to one of the earths full of dimes and picking the marked one first try.

That is 31 prophecies not even close to 2,000 fulfilled Prophecies.

Matthew 24:15-18 New King James Version

15 "Therefore when you see the 'abomination of desolation,' spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place" (whoever reads, let him understand), 16 "then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.
17 Let him who is on the housetop not go down to take anything out of his house. 18 And let him who is in the field not go back to get his clothes.

Revelation 12:13-17 New King James Version 13 Now when the dragon saw that he had been cast to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male Child. 14 But the woman was given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness to her place, where she is nourished for a time and times and half a time, from the presence of the serpent. 15 So the serpent spewed water out of his mouth like a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood. 16 But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the flood which the dragon had spewed out of his mouth. 17 And the dragon was enraged with the woman, and he went to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.
