

Right here in the Book of Hebrews. Whether man, or prophet, 1,000 years later David's Psalm, and 1,000 years after that, probably to the day, Abraham's encounter with Melchizedek, in the Bible. One thousand years from each other, joining God God's awesome wonder Melchizedek is mentioned 3 times This path is that Jesus would be the forever High Priest. In since God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit are 3 in 1. and unconditional because God the Son made it with God the Son (conditional because God the Son would have to fulfill the covenant with himself (God the Son); both conditional and unconditional).
Hebrews 7:20-25. Again, God makes an oath; a covenant will respect from God and who gives it to us because of our faith do exactly that is the God Man Jesus Christ who earned that would consider them perfect. "A better hope," or pathway to and so we their own abilities would impress God that He sure that they could do everything that God requires for perfection Hebrews 7:19. Again, the law came about because Israel was so U (see paragraph on Israel's continued non-faith and lip service lip service of faith statements are utter non-belief (non-faith). is the only thing that God counts as acceptable. Complaining and (remember the whole Book of Hebrews is about "faith" and faith have FAITH! But Israel forced the law upon themselves wanted Israel to follow him, and only him, obey his voice, and By the way, God never wanted to give the law to anyone. He just law was so powerfully undeniable that it was over our mind!
(law) was set aside because it was weak and useless. Yet this Hebrews 7:18 This verse is almost an oxymoron. "The regulation God on our behalf. A priest forever in the order of Melchizedek prophets and then laying down his life as a sin offering to a sinless life, tempted by all things yet not sinning, full of life and beginning who then laid aside his duty to be born of a virgin, walk and adherence to regulations, not what he born; was one without Furthermore, our High Priest did not get his position by lineage of David, Abraham, the root of Jesse, and the tribe of Judah, not Levi.
Hebrews 7:13-17 Jesus, the Messiah, had to be of the lineage (18)

Old: Thou shalt not steal, thou shalt not murder, disrespect, etc.
New: Thou shalt love God above all Thou shalt love your neighbor as yourself.

But rather a new law that says "thou shalt" it is written on Not one written on stone tablets that tell us "thou shalt not".
Christ, I with our new high priest we also have a new law.
them, and all New Testament believers who's FAITH is in Jesus of their FAITH that God would send a Messiah to come and get entrance to the throne room. The old Testament believers became Jesus Christ entered once and for all and gave off believers from the top to the bottom (by God) and the new high priest changed also. "When the priesthood is changed, the law must be Hebrews 7:12 "When the priesthood is changed, the law must be please let this cup pass from me".

When the pleaded with God, 3 times, "if there is any other way perfection, Jesus himself made that absolutely crystal clear to die? Because it could have never ever ever achieved and by adhering to the Levitical priesthood why did Jesus have perfection could have been attained by the keeping of the law.
Hebrews 7:11 This is the whole Old Testament in 1 verse! If Many theologians do not think he was a theophany.
Abraham and blessed him... (Again, just my theological opinion.
Secondly because verse 1 says, "yet he collected a tenth from elevated in standing, so the "lesser" fitted to the "greater". because they were God's priest's, doing God's work. They were of Levi would collect a tenth (10%) from the tribes of Israel because he received a title from Abraham. (later on the tribe Hebrews 7:4-10 Lifts up Melchizedek. For two reasons. First God.

this man "resembling the Son of God" is actually the Son of son of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego we see that used is in Abraham's meeting Melchizedek. Later on in the and study that passage) the first time "resembling the Son of God" is first place in the Scripture that word or doctrine is revealed understand a particular word or doctrine, we must find the
And so by "The Law of First Mention" (the law says that to with Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego (Book of Daniel). (17) exact phrase used for the fourth man walking in the fire priesthood is forever. In the Old Testament we see the end. It tells us he resembles the Son of God and that his no father or mother, no genealogy, no beginning and no means King of Peace (Shalom = Chalom). This Melchizedek had His name meant "king of righteousness" and "king of Shalom" which actual theophany) who was the priest of God Most High.

Hebrews 7:1-3 Melchizedek was a type of Jesus (if not an for all High Priest, like the King of Salem, Melchizedek. swears by Himself that Jesus is our forever and once and that that what He says will be so. And so it is case God by Himself that it will be so. And so says our God is to in this Scripture it is saying that God who can not lie, swears themselves" is the form of an oath (like in a court room) and Hebrews 6:16-20 "People swear by someone greater than themselves Abraham by giving him many descendants. (unconditional covenant) Hebrews 6:13-15 God made a covenant with Himself to "bless conditional covenant ("If you do this, I will do that"). In the one in higher power to the one who is inferior. This is a A covenant is usually made between two parties, always with the name of Himself. God's promises are called covenants.
Leap: God made a promise to Abraham, and He made it in covenanted their faith during other times of righteousness. did to show down His plan. Instead Scripture tells us that He these men made covenants by the Patriarchs and all that they This makes verses 14-17 concerning God does not recount all like you said so I am going to interview." God I don't think this is going to happen one basically saying "God I don't think this is going to happen that led to pain and suffering. When we try to help God out we and it would have been without 32 (or more) circumstances world have made everything turn out as it was supposed to to help God out. It only shows our lack of faith. God to what is the moral of the story (the rabbit hole)? Stop trying 52 would never see Joseph again.