

NEW BROOKWOOD
LABOR COLLEGE

SUMMER SEMINARS

Intro to the Global Labor Movement, Dr. Helena Worthen — July 18-21

Theories of the Labor Movement, Dave Kamper — August 15-18

Classes will be held at the East Side Freedom Library—
1105 Greenbrier Street, St. Paul, MN 55118

Register online: <https://newbrookwood.org/classes>

Please join us for our guest-taught 4 day summer seminars. These shortened classes cover specific, timely labor topics. Summer seminars are open to all.

July 18-21, 2019

INTRO TO THE GLOBAL LABOR MOVEMENT

Join Dr. Helena Worthen as she leads students through a survey of the global labor movement and the four fundamental questions that define any industrial relations system: Who is "us"? Who can act? Who judges? Who enforces?

August 15-18, 2019

THEORIES OF THE LABOR MOVEMENT

The Labor Movement is not a single entity nor does it follow a single set of rules. Instead, the movement is a collection of people who continually re-think methods for affecting change. Join NBLC Co-Founder Dave Kamper to explore the theories that drive our work.

Questions? Email newbrookwood@gmail.com
Register online: <https://newbrookwood.org/classes>

