

THE Kayko's AND Mary's STORY

FROM MUGS TO MILLIONS

Kayko was a divorced single mom fi red from her high-paying job as vice president of marketing. Mary was a divorced stay-at-home mom with four children. Kaykos and Mary suffered great personal losses, heartbreak, disappointments, and struggles. But somehow they came together and transformed all the negative into partnership, entrepreneurship, fi nancial freedom and personal victory. From unemployment to successful coffee shop & bakery shop owners. This is an example of the reality of one of life's most painful transitions, while revealing the unexpected beauty buried beneath the heartbreak. A story about loss, it's a journey of breakthrough.

Fueled by a commitment to continually evolve into their best selves, they expand their passion for personal growth to empower women on their own transformational journeys. Through lived experiences, we create spaces for healing, refl ection, full reinvention, and unwavering commitment to self-improvement. This is to serve as a guiding light for those ready to rise from the ashes, reclaim their faith and walk confi dently into life, purpose and fulfi llment. This book is for anyone ready to emerge from the ashes, embrace transformation and rediscover strength, clarity and life waiting on the other side.
