

Christian values are our foundation and adventure fills each day! We are committed to providing our campers with the experience of a lifetime. Friendships are formed here and continue even after campers go home.

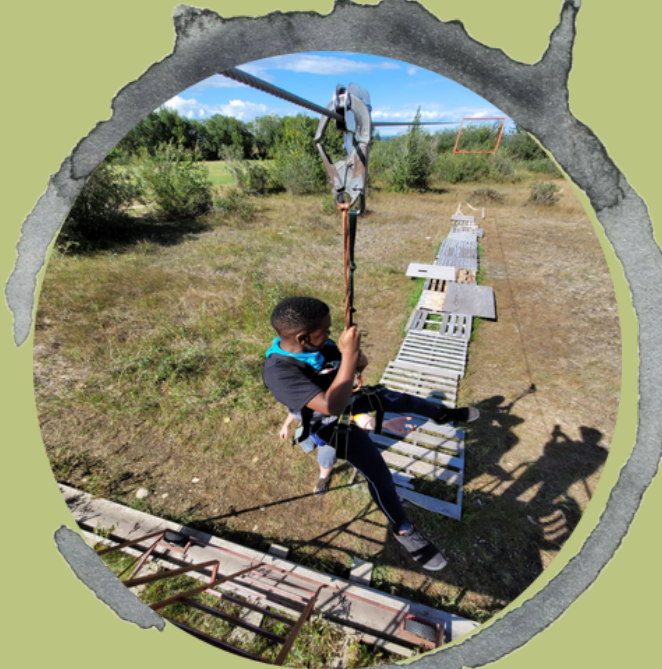

Our program includes:

- Swimming
- Field games
- Crafts
- Zip-lining
- Canoeing
- Archery
- Evening campfires

ALBERTA CAMP RHINO happens on Gull Lake, about 90 minutes from both Edmonton and Calgary

We have comfortable sleeping cabins, dining hall, lodge, gym, sports fields, and our own water front.

Overnight camp geared especially for boys and girls from diverse backgrounds and immigrant families. We focus on developing tomorrow's leaders through life-changing adventures in God's creation.

Our hope is that every boy and girl leaves CAMP RHINO with:

- Lifelong and wonderful memories
- More confidence and self-assurance
- Greater respect for others, themselves, and God's Creation
- A greater ability to make and keep friends
- A deeper understanding of God

To register for our August 19 - 23, 2024 camp visit us at: www.camprhino.ca

We are intentionally committed to:

- Ensuring campers feel comfortable in the camp setting, with their cabinmates, the programs, and our staff.
- Connecting with each camper and helping the boys and girls connect with one another and the out-doors
- Ensuring that our staff understand that every camper is the most important reason we are at camp and is deserving of our care and attention wherever we are day or night.
- Making the camp experience FUN and meaningful
