

JUMBO BLOCK®

The largest and most stable freely scalable rainwater retention system in the world.

The JUMBO BLOCK® system redefines structural stability with a design concept that adapts to any challenge.

Each modular block is the result of years of research and development, developing customized material compositions for each application to withstand even the most extreme conditions.