"We were nervous about choosing the right puppy for our family, but Val's recommendation made all the difference.

She took the time to understand our lifestyle and then matched us with the perfect little guy. She truly found us the perfect fit." — The Johnson Family

How It Works ♥

A personalized approach for your family! ♥

1

CONSULTATION

We start with a one-on-one conversation about your family, lifestyle, experience level, and what you're looking for in a dog.

2

RESEARCH & RECOMMENDATIONS

We help you determine the best breeds, temperaments, and energy levels for your situation, and connect you with reputable breeders when needed.

3

TEMPERAMENT MATCHING

We evaluate puppies using professional temperament assessment methods to help identify the best fit for your home.

4

GUIDANCE & SUPPORT

We guide you through breeder communication, selection, and home prep so you feel confident and ready.

Frequently Asked Questions ♥

What if we have a preferred breeder already?

No problem! We love introducing our methods to new people and would be happy to work with your breeder choice.

How long does the process take?

We can move at your pace. Ready for a puppy now? No problem! We'll reach out to our friends and start working with pups available right away. Have a preferred timeline? Ok! Let's see what is in the pipeline and get your family into that perfect puppy pick spot on the list.

Do you work with special needs homes?

Of course! These are our favorite as this is truly where our skills shine! Special needs families require a special touch when it comes to temperament of the perfect puppy. And that is exactly what we are using our professional skills to hone in on!
