

Weavers' Song

Original Lyrics and Composition by Adam Csenki and Ewan Macintyre

Lyrics	Pronunciation Notes	English Translation
Tog an siùil ri chlann na mara Clòimh ar seòladh, fad is farsaing Fada thairis air ar faire Fad on uair sin	Tok un shiul ri chlown na mara, Claw ad shawl-ich fat is farsing, Fatta harris air a farra, Fat on oor sing.	Hoist the sails to the children of the sea Wool that sailed across distant shores Far beyond our horizons
Horo na hiù il o ro ri Ho ro ho ro Horo na hiù il o ro ri Chlann na mara Gàidheal x2	Ho ro hui-li or o Ho ro ho ro Ho ro hui-li or o Chlann na mara Gael.	Horo horo Horo etc The Scottish children of the sea
Cultar chlà na cridhe Gàidheal Binneas reulta for ar n-inntinn Linntean leis gar stiùireadh, èideadh, smèideadh thugainn chun ar cinntinn	Culter chlo nuh cree-a Gael, Bee-nyesh reulta for ar neenchig, Leenching lesh gar shtoo-rich ey-jeach, fat on oor-sing. Chorus repeat.	Culture of wool at the heart of the gael A stars melody beneath our minds Ages with it guiding and clothing us From long before that time