ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

Section 1. Elected Officers:

A. Commander. The Commander is the Chief Executive Officer of the Chapter and is the official spokesman for the chapter in the area of public relations. As such, all matters concerning relations between the chapter and any outside person or organization should be routed to the commander for appropriate action. The Commander will preside over all meetings of the Chapter; serve as Chairman of the Executive Board, act as executive officer member of all committees, issue the call for regular and special executive board meetings, schedule regular elections ensuring consistency with these by-laws, and carry out the directives of the Executive Board, State Representative, and the NBOD. Executive Officer, Secretary, Treasurer and Sergeant-At-Arms are accountable to the Commander under the CEB's advisement, the Commander is empowered to judge items not covered in the by-laws or in the Chapter's rules and regulations. Commander is allowed to appoint temporary officers pending an official vote by the members.

B. Executive Officer. The Executive Officer (XO) is the second in command of the Chapter and shall assume all responsibilities of the Commander in the Commander's absence. The XO shall coordinate all committees, and supervise plans for all chapter events. The XO serves as an intermediary between the Commander and Chapter's members. The Executive Officer also manages the CEB's membership and scheduled activities.

C. Secretary. The Secretary is responsible for making and keeping of all chapter records, including: The membership roster, the by-laws, Rules of Order, Standing Rules, Command Chronology, all written reports, copies of all correspondence between the Chapter and any outside person or organization, and shall keep correct minutes of the proceedings of the Chapter Officers and general membership meetings. The Secretary is responsible for the publishing of agenda items and minutes. The Secretary under the direction of the Commander prepares all reports as required.

D. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall be the chief financial officer of the Chapter and maintains accurate records of receipts and expenditures of the Chapter. The Treasurer will collect all Chapter forms of income due to the chapter; maintain the accounting books, makes payments from the Chapter's funds when so ordered by the CEB or NBOD. The Treasurer shall manage the Chapter accounts, including but not limited to the checkbook and shall ensure that all checks are signed by two members of the CEB either the Treasurer and/or the Commander and/or the Executive Officer. The Treasurer shall make quarterly reports and present them at the Chapter's quarterly meetings, an annual report for the end-of-year meeting, or at any other time as requested by the Commander. The Treasurer shall ensure that the Financial Operating Policy, promulgated from time to time by the Commander, is strictly enforced.

E. Sergeant at Arms. The Sergeant at Arms (SaA) is responsible for ensuring that the by-laws and standing rules of the Chapter are not violated, and the orders of the Chapter Officers are carried out in an expeditious manner. He or she is responsible for policing and keeping order at all Chapter events. The Sergeant at Arms is responsible for the safety and security of the Chapter. The Sergeant at Arms will maintain order during meetings. In coordination with the Secretary, the Sergeant at Arms will verify each person's membership is in good standing before business-requiring votes of the membership takes place. The Sergeant at Arms will have oversight of appointed Road Captains ensuring that the chapter remains safe on group rides and runs.

F. Chapter Executive Board. The Executive Board constitutes the Executive Board of the Chapter, responsible for the execution, through its officers of the authorized policies, by majority votes, fills officer vacancies when required and submits to the associations meetings and recommendations affecting the policies of the association which have been previously approved.

Section 2. Appointed Officers and Chairpersons.

From time to time, the Commander may appoint Officers and Chairpersons, specifying the duties thereof, including but not necessarily limited to Public Relations Officer, Road Captains, Chaplain and Veteran Service Officers to other committees.

A. Public Relations Officer. The Public Relations Officer will maintain a file and have it ready to present at each meeting and all association functions. He or she will be in charge of all the Combat Veterans Motorcycle Associations publicity, in conjunction with, and approved by, the association's Commander. Duties will include: Historian, club file, pictures, newspaper articles, TV and radio announcements and the Chapter's web site. Auxiliary Member may fill this position, if no Full Member wants it.

- B. Road Captain. The Road Captain (RC) is an appointed position by the Commander. The Road Captain is responsible for the safely conduct of all Chapter runs. Under the Commander's directions for Chapter's runs or the RC shall research, plan, and organize the runs. During actual time on the road or at intermediate stops, the RC acts as the ranking officer deferring only to the Commander or Executive Officer for Chapter runs. The Road Captain is responsible directly to the Sergeant at Arms during all Chapter runs.
- C. Chaplain. The Chaplain (CHPLN) is an appointed position by the Commander. CHPLN serves as the Chapter's nondenominational religious leader; provides spiritual support to the Chapter members; and as the primary counseling POC for those members in needs.
- D. Veteran Service Officer. The Veteran Service Officer (VSO) is a Commander appointed position. The VSO is the primary Chapter's advocate for not only 33-10 member's Veteran benefits, but also the champion for benefits of all U.S. Veterans. Where required or when requested, the VSO assists members to file disability claims and provides guidance/recommendations to members as to how best to navigate the Department of Veteran Affairs intricate bureaucracy.

Section 3. Attendance of Officers.

All elected and appointed officers and chairpersons shall make every reasonable effort to attend every meeting, event and formal function of the Chapter. Such officers and chairpersons should notify the Commander or Executive Officer when they are unable to attend a meeting, event or function. Officers that accumulate three consecutive unexcused absences shall be deemed to have abandoned their office and election shall be conducted as soon as possible to fill such office until the term of the office expires.

ARTICLE VII

Meetings

Section 1. CEB and Regular Meetings.

The Chapter Officers shall meet monthly once every month and Chapter general members shall meet at minimum on a quarterly basis at a time and place scheduled by the Commander. The Commander may cancel a scheduled meeting in the event of inclement weather or other unusual event or circumstance. In such a case, reasonable effort will be made to notify all members of the cancellation. A quorum of conducting business shall be those present at any given meeting.

Section 2. Annual Meetings.

An annual meeting of the members shall take place every year, during the month of June. The Commander will designate the specific date, time and location of which. At the annual meeting the members shall elect officers according to these by-laws, receive reports on activities of the Chapter and association, and determine the direction of the Chapter for the coming year.

Section 3. Special Meetings.

The Commander may call special meetings. A petition signed by five (5) percent of the voting members may also call a special meeting.

Section 4. Notice of Meeting.

Notice and agenda of meetings shall be made by email, phone call, or text to each voting member, not less than two weeks prior to a meeting.

Section 5. Rules.

Roberts Rules of Order will be applied during meetings to affect parliamentary procedures, unless otherwise amended and provided for in the by-laws. Commander will appoint a member of the CEB to serve additional duty as parliamentarian.

ARTICLE VIII

Delegations

Section 1. Delegates.

Delegates will be appointed by the Commander, but are subject to the approval of the Chapter Executive Board, to represent the association at any convention, meeting, rally, or other assembly that may be deemed necessary, and all delegations are authorized to exercise only those powers specifically vested in them by the CEB. Chapters will have delegate votes based on Chapter membership. One delegate vote per 15 full members. Delegate votes will be used for National agenda items. Votes for National officers will not be changed and will still be taken by full members in actual attendance at the National.

ARTICLE IX

Amendments

Section 1. Altered.

These by-laws may be altered, or repealed by new by-laws adopted at any announced meeting by a two-thirds vote of the members present. The Chapter Officers may alter or amend these by-laws only to revise a conflicting article and/or section.

Section 2. Amendments.

Any proposed amendment to these by-laws may be acted upon at any membership meeting, provided that a copy of any said proposed amendment shall be provided to each Chapter member thirty (30) days prior to the meeting at which the proposed amendment may be acted upon. Any such proposed amendment shall be declared adopted upon a majority vote of the meeting. Approved and accepted amendments take effect immediately.

Section 3.

Changes.

Any changes to any article and or section of the Chapter by-laws will be discussed and voted on by a quorum.

Section 4. Precedence.

If any Chapter by-law conflicts with the National CVMA by-laws, the National CVMA by-laws will take precedence, with the exception of any National CVMA by-law that conflicts with Federal and/or State of California Law.

Section 5. Conflicting.

If any Chapter by-law conflicts with Federal and/or State of California provisions and/or statutes and/or National CVMA by-laws, the conflicting article(s) and/or section(s) shall be revised by the Chapter Officers and shall take effect immediately. Members will be advised of such changes immediately. Proposals for changes to the immediate changes made by the Chapter Officers will be subject to Article X Sections 2 and 3 of these by-laws.

Section 6. National Patch.

Any full member who is still a member of the Armed Forces of the USA who attends the previous year's Nationals, but cannot, because of Military deployment to a combat zone, attend the current year National meeting will be given credit for the National and will be authorized a rocker for the National patch that will read, for example, DEPLOYED 20XX.

ARTICLE X

Subordination and Authority

Section 1. Authority.

The supreme power of this Chapter shall be vested in the National CVMA.

Section 2. Chapter Government.

Subject to the provisions of the National CVMA by-laws, the government of this Chapter shall be vested in the membership, the Chapter Officers and the lawful orders of the Chapter Commander.

ARTICLE XI

Construction and Terms

Section 1. Unenforceable or Invalid.

If any of the provisions or provisions of these by-laws be held unenforceable or invalid for any reason, the remaining provisions and portions of these by-laws shall be unaffected by such holding.

Section 2. References.

All references in these by-laws to a section or section of the Internal Revenue Code shall be to such sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended from time to time, or to corresponding provisions of any future federal tax code.
