

CENTRAL CONNECTICUT SOCCER OFFICIALS ASSOCIATION, INC.

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I: Name

The name of this Association shall be "Central Connecticut Soccer Officials Association, Incorporated" (hereafter noted as "CCSOA, Inc." or "Association").

ARTICLE II: Purposes

The purposes of this Association shall be:

1. To unite in the membership of this organization all fully qualified soccer officials in and around Hartford County, Connecticut and the Central Connecticut region and to be responsible for the proper officiating of secondary schools and all other soccer contests that come within our jurisdiction.
2. To develop, establish and maintain the highest ideals of fair play and sportsmanship in connection with the game of soccer.
3. To provide the training of new officials, to develop among all soccer officials a definite responsibility as to their knowledge of the rules and conduct of the game as officially adopted by the National Federation, the National Collegiate Association and the Federation of International Football Association and to promote the uniform interpretation of the rules of soccer.
4. To encourage every official to sensibly enforce all the rules of the game, both in letter and spirit of the rules and to uphold the Constitution and By-Laws of the Central Connecticut Soccer Officials Association, Inc. (hereafter known as CCSOA, Inc.)

ARTICLE III: Commencement of Operations

The Central Connecticut Soccer Officials Association, Inc. shall be Connecticut non-stock corporation established pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 600 of the Connecticut General Statutes. The corporation shall commence its existence as of the date of incorporation in the office of the Secretary of State and shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE IV: Membership

The membership of this Association shall consist only of those duly elected to membership and they shall be classified as follows:

1. Active: Active members are those in good standing with no financial obligation owing to the Association for current or previous years, who have successfully passed all required qualifications for membership, and who have been voted as Active members by the membership of this Association. Active membership in this Association shall be open to:

- a) any persons who have reached the age of 18 and have an interest in the welfare of soccer.
- b) all qualified persons who can meet the requirements as set forth by the CCSOA, Inc Examination and Member Committee. A testing fee set by the Exam and Membership Committee shall accompany all applications for membership.

2. Inactive: Any Active member in good standing may request "Inactive" status for a maximum of two consecutive years by written or electronic notification to the Secretary/Treasurer. The Association will vote to approve or disapprove. The Inactive member shall receive no assignments, be exempt from paying annual dues and have no vote.

Return to "Active" status is accomplished by paying annual dues, passing a written exam and a majority approval vote of the Association. They must complete the following requirements:

- i. For an official who had obtained "Active" status:
 1. Take the annual exam and pass – without fee
 2. Is not required to retake the field test
- ii. For an official who obtained probationary status:
 1. Take annual exam and pass – without fee
 2. Retake field test and pass – without fee

Satisfactory completion of these requirements will place an official at the same status they were at prior to being put in Inactive status.

3. Probationary: Probationary members include all Active members who have been placed on probation pursuant to the By-Laws of this Constitution and all new applicants who have been elected to Probationary membership at the end of their application year and who have fulfilled all requirements for Probationary membership. A Probationary membership may not remain in that status for less than two consecutive years or more than four consecutive years. All applicants for CCSOA, Inc. membership shall pay first-year probationary dues, which shall be set by the Exam and Membership Committee, before they can obtain Probationary status or officiate any assigned soccer contest.

Probationary member may become an Active Member:

- i. After officiating for two full seasons and working a minimum of 30 games during that period or having five (5) years prior verifiable experience with another sanctioned soccer refereeing organization and in good standing with said organization, after officiating for one full season and working a minimum of 15 games with a partner during that period. The Association must have assigned those games.
- ii. Upon recommendation of the Exam and Membership Committee.
- iii. Upon payment of all assessments, dues, fines and any other financial obligation due to the Association.
- iv. Upon fulfilling attendance requirements.
- v. Upon passing a game assessment by better officiating committee.
- vi. By a simple majority approval vote of the Active membership.

4. Honorary: Honorary membership may be awarded to any person who has honorably distinguished himself or herself in any way in the game of soccer as voted by a simple majority of the Active membership present at any meeting. Honorary members do not have voting status.

5. Life: Life members are past or active members who have been voted into such status by the present Active membership of the Association.

Life membership may be awarded to individuals who are or who have been Active members of the Association and who have distinguished themselves in the interest of soccer. They will pay no dues but will have all other privileges of any member including the right to vote.

6. Transfer: An official, who transfers from another soccer association, from within or without the state of Connecticut, shall become an Active member or a Probationary member when he/she presents evidence that they were a member in Good Standing of their previous Association. They shall be placed on an officiating level commensurate with the level officiated with their previous Association.

Transfer of Officials from other boards.

i. Members who transfer to CCSOA, Inc. from another Association or state shall be accepted as a member upon a written letter of recommendation from their previous association.

ii. A Transferee must meet all financial obligations as set forth by this Association.

iii. A Transferee's status will be determined by recommendation from the Examination and Membership Committee after the Transferee has met with the committee.

7. Dual: An Active official who lives in the area of one board but employed in the area of another board may officiate in both areas provided the dues and other financial responsibilities are paid to both boards. If the official does not wish to do this, he/she may pay their dues with either board and can only officiate through that board's assignments.

ARTICLE V: Officers

Section 1 – The officers shall consist of the President, 1st Vice-President, 2nd Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer, Official Interpreter and Commissioner. The officers shall be elected at the Annual Meeting of the Association for a term of 2 years except the Official Interpreter will be elected annually.

6. For each member and each school; publish a completed list of assignments for the pre-season and the first two weeks of the regular season; and at the end of the first week of the regular season, publish a completed list of assignments for the remainder of the games in the regular season.
7. Provides the Secretary-Treasurer, no later than 14 days after the final assigned game, a list of officials with the games they officiated, the sites and dates they officiated and compilation of income from games officiated.
8. Reassigns all games in which the host school or the officials make changes involved.
9. Works with the Secretary-Treasurer to ensure proper assessment collection.
10. Handles any other duties that might arise in the Assignment process.

For the performance of the above-mentioned duties, the Commissioner shall receive the following compensation:

- a. 90% of the annual anticipated assessment
- b. One-half of this amount, will be paid during September and the remainder will be paid by January 31.

G. Each year the Executive Committee will meet with and review the performance of the Secretary-Treasurer and the Commissioner. The committee's performance review will be presented to the membership at the Annual Meeting.

Section 3 – Only Active members in Good Standing are eligible to hold office.

Section 4 – Any vacancy occurring during the year shall be filled at the next business meeting by a Vote of the Active membership. The Executive Committee will recommend a nominee. The Active membership may nominate from the floor. A simple majority of the Active membership, in secret ballot, shall determine the replacement, which will be for the rest of the term. The President will appoint a member in good standing to fill the vacancy upon recommendation of the Executive Board until the next business meeting. The filling of the vacancy will only be for the rest of the term.

Section 5 – The Nominations Committee will recommend to the Active membership a slate of officers every other year. These offices will include President, 1st Vice-President, 2nd Vice-President, Commissioner, and Secretary-Treasurer. The Active membership may nominate from the floor. A simple majority of the Active membership, in secret ballot, shall determine the officers at the Annual Meeting every two years. The Official Interpreter will be voted through the same process, but annually.

Section 6 – The Secretary-Treasurer and the Commissioner shall receive compensation annually as determined in Article V, Section 2, D(a), F(a). The Secretary-Treasurer, during his/her term in office shall be exempt from paying annual dues.

Section 7 – The President, during his/her term of office shall be exempt from paying annual dues.

ARTICLE VI: Uniform

Section 1 – the CSOA shall determine the official uniform.

ARTICLE VII: Meetings

Section 1 – A minimum of five meetings a year shall be held. The last fall meeting shall be designated as the Annual Meeting. At this meeting, annual reports shall be given and officers shall be elected.

Section 2 – Special meetings may be called by the President or by the Executive Board. In addition, the President shall call a special meeting within 14 days of presentation to, and verification by, the Secretary/Treasurer of a petition requesting a special meeting signed by a majority of the voting members in good standing. At least 72 hours prior to the commencement of any special meeting, the Secretary/Treasurer shall give notice to the membership of the date, time and location of the meeting and the matter or matters to be considered at the meeting. No business shall be transacted other than that for which the meeting was called, and business related thereto.

Section 3 – All meeting dates and sites will be set by the Executive Committee.

Section 4 – All meetings will be conducted under Robert’s Rules of Order. The Parliamentarian shall have final determination of any question of procedure.

Section 5 – A banquet shall be held at the end of the regular season. The Banquet Committee will determine the date, site, time and program for the event.

ARTICLE VIII: Attendance-Fine-Suspensions

Section 1 – A member who fails to pay assessment fee or fines by April 1st shall be suspended indefinitely upon notification by the Secretary.

Section 2 – A member may be reinstated if he/she pays all past assessments, fines, past and future dues and a $100.00 processing fee.

Section 3 – A member may appeal any fine or punishment directly to the Executive Board. If the Executive Board refuses to take action or denies the appeal, the member may directly appeal to the Active membership. A ruling and a favorable simple majority vote by the Active membership present will uphold the member’s appeal. Otherwise the appeal will be denied. The Association’s vote is final.

Section 4 – Any member whose actions are considered by the membership to be detrimental to the best interests of the Association is subject to be returned to Probationary membership, suspension, expulsion, and/or to be fined. Any complaint regarding a member shall be submitted in writing to any member of the Executive Board specifying the exact nature and the time of the alleged improper conduct. Upon receipt of said complaint, the President will forward the complaint to the Grievance Committee who will attempt to resolve the grievance in the spirit of the fairness of the issue. If they are unable to resolve the grievance or if any disciplinary action is recommended, the Committee will forward a written report of its findings to the President who will submit the complaint to the Executive Committee, who will set a date for a hearing on the complaint. The Executive Committee must notify the accused member at least seven days prior to the hearing and offer the member an opportunity to be heard. The Executive Committee, after hearing all facts, shall examine the matter in the spirit of fairness and submit to the Association a written report which shall include their recommendations. The Executive Board may take the following action: exonerate the member, reprimand the member, restrict the member, place the member on probationary status, refer the member to the membership with a recommendation that the member be suspended or expelled. A two-thirds majority vote of the Active membership present is necessary to ratify any return to Probationary membership, suspension, expulsion and/or fine. If this procedure is not followed, the complaint shall be dismissed.

Section 5 – Members who miss more than one non-mandatory meeting during the year will be fined and/or suspended.

A. Members who fail to:

- Pay assessment fee within 30 days of receipt
- Submit preseason scrimmage form by the second business meeting, if the scrimmage is not assigned by the Commissioner
