Please review the paragraphs below and acknowledge your concurrence by initialing where indicated. If there are two adults in the family membership, please include initials of both members.

1. Equestrian activities may be dangerous and come with potential risk of serious injury or even death. Certain club sponsored equestrian activities may involve the use barrels, obstacles or even livestock, all of which may increase the risk of injury or accident. No form of preplanning can fully remove the inherent dangers of this recreational sport. Members are expected to understand this and acknowledge their acceptance of these risks.

I fully understand and willingly accept these risks and will take the necessary precautions to prevent accidents or injuries to the best of my abilities any time I am riding or working with horses on club grounds. Initial

2. Children of family members are encouraged to participate with and learn about proper horsemanship, trail riding and other aspects of equine care including the potential risk associated with this sport. The Saddle Club strongly advises that minor children wear a protective ASTM certified riding helmet at all times when handling and riding horses while on Saddle Club property. Members are expected to supervise minor children and ensure they follow all safety and usage guidelines as defined in the bylaws and ground rules. (Please complete the list of minor children on page 2.)

As a member with minor children, I agree to supervise my children at all times when participating in equine/horse related activities on club property and will ensure they follow safety and usage guidelines. I also acknowledge the club's helmet recommendation and (will) (will not) (circle one) comply with this recommendation as it applies to my minor children. Initial

3. As a member, I concur with all above items stated in this document. I also hereby release, waive and hold harmless the Chelan Rustlers Saddle Club, Inc., (a nonprofit organization), its officers, agents and members from all liability of any nature including but not limited to injury, loss, damage, death and any reasonable expenses including attorneys' fees incurred from any aforementioned incident while participating in equine recreational activities on Saddle Club property. This declaration includes myself, my animals, my spouse or partner, my children, my guests, any minors for whom I act as a legal guardian and their animals while having contact with mine or other horses at the club.
