Omicron Phi Zeta Chapter and Women of the Dove Foundation Norma J. Oliver Memorial Book Scholarship

On January 16, 1920, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated was founded on the campus of Howard University by five visionary women who dared to depart from the traditional coalitions for black women and sought to establish a new organization based on the precepts of Scholarship, Service, Sisterhood and Finer Womanhood.

In furtherance of the vision of the founders, Omicron Phi Zeta Chapter was chartered on March 26, 1994. Since its chartering almost 32 years ago, Omicron Phi Zeta Chapter members have supported a variety of causes and organizations, in addition to the Sorority's national initiatives. Omicron Phi Zeta is an award-winning chapter for its commitment to Z- HOPE (Zetas Helping Other People Excel) projects, involvement with its youth auxiliary and Undergraduate Chapter, Xi Sigma at The George Washington University.

The Women of the Dove Foundation (WDF) is the 501(c)3 organization that partners with Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated, Omicron Phi Zeta Chapter. WDF is dedicated to improving the quality of life for individuals and families in local, national, and global communities. Every year, the foundation sponsors events to raise funds for WDF scholarships and other charitable causes.

We are pleased to announce the 2026 Norma J. Oliver Memorial Book Scholarship. Norma J. Oliver was a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated, and charter member of Omicron Phi Zeta Chapter. She was an alumna of Benedict College in Columbia, South Carolina and worked as a Social Worker for many years in Washington, DC. She was also an elementary school educator in Clarendon, South Carolina which was one of the feeder counties for the Brown vs. Board of Education Supreme Court decision. Soror Oliver had a strong passion for scholarship therefore this scholarship, named in her honor, will be awarded to a female student enrolled in an institution of higher learning in the Fall of 2026. The institution may include a college, university, or trade school. Scholarship awardees will be notified by May 1, 2026, of their selection to receive a scholarship. The award recipient or representative of the awardee must be available June 7, 2026, to attend the reception to accept the award.
