Weekly Prayerful Thoughts

“You do not have, because you do not ask God.” James 4:2

God blesses us every day with things we don't necessarily ask for, things we might take for granted: A place to live, fresh air, the beauty of nature, friends and family. But for some blessings, He chooses to make us a part of the process by encouraging us to ask for what we need and want. The truth is that we experience life and blessings more fully when we look to God for all of our wants and needs, either through expressing gratitude or petitioning Him for our needs. If you are hurting for something today, ask God for it. If you are not, thank Him for what you have. You will find your life more richly blessed—even if only from an improved attitude. Best yet, your whole being will be permeated with an awareness of God's presence and goodness. “Lord, thank you for blessing me. Help reopen my heart and needs to You today.” Amen

We give thanks for the wonderful Chapel from Mrs. Lang on Tuesday. She reminded us of some of our “prayer thoughts and prayer verses” for this school year. You would enjoy looking them up in the Bible and reading them to your children together. Jeremiah 29:12, Colossians 4:2, James 4:2, Luke 18:1, Deut 31:8, Matthew 26:41, Jeremiah 33:3, Psalm 116:3, and there are more to come. During our Thanksgiving break, please talk with your children about all that we have to be thankful. -Dr Falkner

A very special thank you to all of you who blessed the teachers and staff with a gift of appreciation.
